ACHS to deal with defeat

by MARY FOLEY

Lakeland Newspapers

Once again voters in District 117 have said no to Antioch Community High School. With a whopping voter turn-out of approximately 36 percent, 56 percent of the voters said no. Now, the school must grapple with a nearly $2 million deficit, which is actually larger than the now famous deficit in North Chicago.

In an effort to reduce the huge deficit, the Board of Education was asking for a $27 increase, which was 25 percent lower than last April's defeated referendum.

Newly elected school board members Wayne Sobczak, Phillip Delaney, and Aileen Biel will join the incumbent board members in efforts to keep the school on track. Board members will need to make some tough decisions.

"We have a new board," said Superintendent Robert Schley. "They are going to have to analyze the alternatives such as additional cuts, deficit spending, and future referendums."

According to school officials, there were several factors which enabled the school board to ask for a lowered amount this election. First of all, in a surprising move the state legislature increased the amount of state aid for the 1993-94 school year. Instead of losing an anticipated $200,000 in state aid, the amount was actually increased by almost $189,000. This action provided a budgetary windfall of almost $400,000.

Another reason for the decrease is that the cuts made in the budget over the last two years had a greater impact on the overall financial situation than was expected. The board has gotten back to the basics and cut costs as much as possible. Some of these measures included reducing extra-curricular activity, seven and 1/2 staff positions, and an overall reduction of administration costs.

Schley is fairly certain that voters will once again be facing another referendum in April. Schley is concerned that the cost to taxpayers will be higher than 27 cents.

"We'll be back," predicted Schley. "It may be a higher figure next time."

The citizens group endorsing the referendum had an uphill battle this time. The taxpayer watch-dog group BEST was out in full force attempting to block the referendum. Several days before the election, BEST released ACHS teacher's salaries to the public. Furthermore, the (Continued on page 8)

Footlights to light up the town

by MARY FOLEY

Lakeland Newspapers

It's that time of year to reserve your baby-sitters and put on your dancing shoes. Footlights '93 is expected to be the best ever.

Footlights is a fund-raising event with 10 rooms of music, dancing, singing, and great entertainment all under one roof. Parts of St. Peter's School are transformed into a fantasy of entertainment. Patrons who have attended in the past claim it is simply amazing.

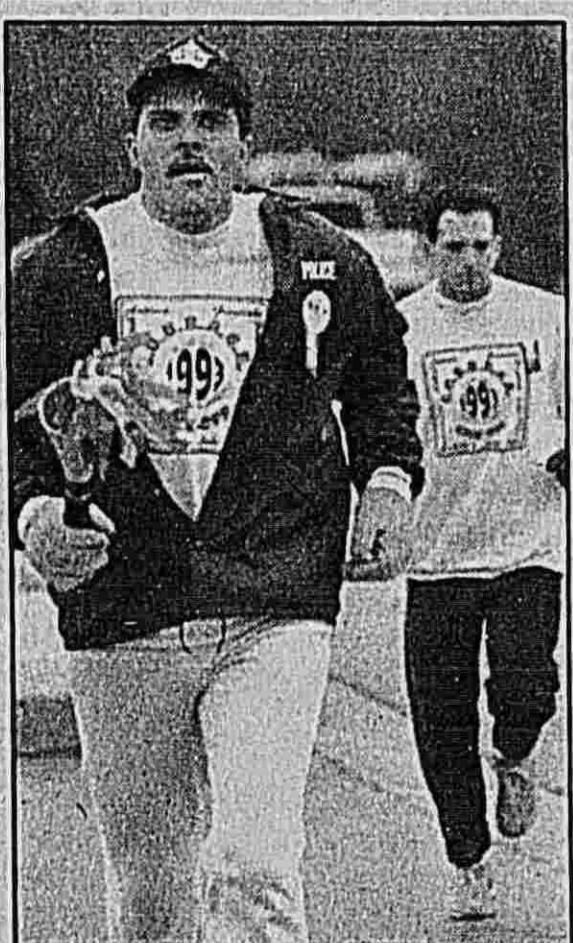

The event, while benefiting St. Peter's School, also benefits the entire community.

"It is very much a community supported activity," explained Philip Delany, Footlight's committee member. "We have more than 300 active volunteers. Many work from one to four days, and then come back as customers. Best of all, every dime that is collected stays in the community."

Sponsored by the parish of St. Peter's Church in Antioch, Footlights is in its 12th year. The fund raiser will be held on the first two weekends in November, the 5th and 6th, and the 12th and 13th.

"The Antioch community comes together like no other to support this event," explains Fran Ano, publicity coordinator. "This year promises to be the most exciting one yet." (Continued on page 8)

BEST hands out teachers salaries

by MARY FOLEY

Lakeland Newspapers

According to Robert Warrender, vice president of Better Education, Sensible Taxes (BEST), members of that group were responsible for the distribution of flyers which included salary and tenure information of teachers at Antioch Community High School.

"Some of my associates were responsible," said Warrender. "It has opened up some eyes."

However, the distribution of that information may have opened up a little more than that. Questions concerning where the group obtained the information have not yet been answered.

According to Dr. Robert Schley, superintendent of District 117, the information was not obtained from the state. Schley checked with state authorities and he was told that they had not received any requests for that information.

Furthermore, there seems to be two different copies of the information being distributed. One copy includes the signature of Regional Superintendent Edward Gonwa and appears to be a photocopy of a ledger. Schley is particularly upset because some of the teachers' social security numbers and birthdates had been included.

"I am absolutely sure the '93-'94 sheet did not come from this office," said Schley. "It is a copy of the Regional Supervisor's. His signature is on the bottom."

Schley called Gonwa's office to discover office policy concerning the release of such information. Schley was told that they release only the names and salary amounts, not the actual form itself.

"The document that was referred to me by Dr. Schley was the Teacher's Service Record," said Gonwa. "That document includes social security numbers and birthdates."

"We have had several requests for documents of this type. I had consulted with the state's attorney's office who told us that we must white out the birthdates and social security numbers. We then continue to use the same method for other, (Continued on page 8)

Write-ins fair well in school board elections

by MARY FOLEY
Lakeland Newspapers

Write-in candidates in both District 33, Emmons School and District 34, Antioch Consolidated Schools made a good showing in Tuesday's school board elections.

In Emmons School District, write in candidates John Petkus and John Imse were elected along with Janet Quist, Louis Korom, and James Koppa. John Petkus is a former board member and president. John Imse is a new-comer to the board. The other write-in candidate, who did not get elected was Richard Ruck. Ruck has served on the board for 24 years, since the district incorporated.

According to Emmons School Superintendent Matt Taber, the school board will miss Ruck. However, Taber looks forward to working with Imse.

"Both John (Petkus) and John (Imse) will fit in with the other board members," said Taber. "I look forward to having them join."

In the District 34 race, write-in candidates Kelly Baird and Kenneth Cichon were elected along with candidates Earl "Bud" Newton and Gary O. Burnette. There were a number of write-in candidates for the available board seats at Antioch Consolidated School District and they garnered a number of votes. At the last minute Richard Matson, Mark Myers, Roy Bolin, and David Cratty threw their hats into the race. However, they were defeated by Baird and Cichon.

The Antioch Upper Grade School and the Millburn School in cooperation with parents, social workers, service organizations, and business are once again sponsoring a junior high school student "Snowflake" program on Saturday, Nov. 13.

Operation Snowflake is a prevention program which addresses a broad range of young adolescent concerns. Its underlying belief is that providing young people with factual information as well as a framework for self understanding will promote responsible decision making. Snowflake is designed to help healthy kids stay healthy.

"Snowflake is awesome, cool, fun, and exciting," students reported in last year's evaluation. "It is a fun way to learn about drugs and alcohol abuse. It is a fun way to find out about peer pressure and other stuff."

Snowflake is an intensive day long drug and alcohol prevention program focusing on positive issues, teaching children good decision making skills, and increasing their self-esteem. There will be a multitude of speakers, discussion groups, laughs, and valuable knowledge. It is a preventative program, not an intervention program.

The speakers for the upcoming program are Anne Myer, the president of the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth; Lon Grohs, a graduate of Antioch Community High School and a student at University of Illinois; and MWAH, a school age group of young people from the Chicago suburbs. There will be four large group presentations at 9 a.m., 10:45 a.m., 1 p.m., and 2:15 p.m.

The cost of the program is $10 which includes a breakfast, lunch, a T-shirt, and materials. Scholarship money will be available for needy students. Many local businesses sponsor the event through contributions.

The program does need volunteers to lead small groups. A training night will be scheduled at 4 p.m. at Antioch Upper Grade School on Nov. 8. Please call Jill Thornton, at 395-1905 for more information.

Community mourns teen's death

by ALEC JUNGE
Lakeland Newspapers

The community of Lindenhurst is still in shock over losing one its teens to a fatal traffic accident.

Kenneth Grasser, 15, died of injuries as a result of a car accident at the corner of Deep Lake Road and North Avenue. He was the passenger in a vehicle that apparently went through a stop sign and killed the other driver, Janine Kennedy, of Trevor, Wis. and her five-month-old fetus.

The fetus died of from the impact of the crash and Kennedy died on Monday, morning, Nov. 1, of multiple trauma.

According to Antioch High School officials, he was well-liked, a hard worker both in the classroom and on the sports field.

"He was very personable, very popular and well-liked," said Larry Kamin, who coached him in wrestling and football. "He will be missed."

Kamin said Grasser was someone who was "gregarious" and was a good influence on his peers.

"He was a hard worker. He led by example and by work," Kamin said.

Ironically the night of the accident,

Grasser scored two touchdowns and rushed for 40 yards on eight carries.

Sophomore Coach John Walker, said Grasser remembered him as someone who "always seemed to have a smile on his face". He said Grasser was an example of how hard work could pay off.

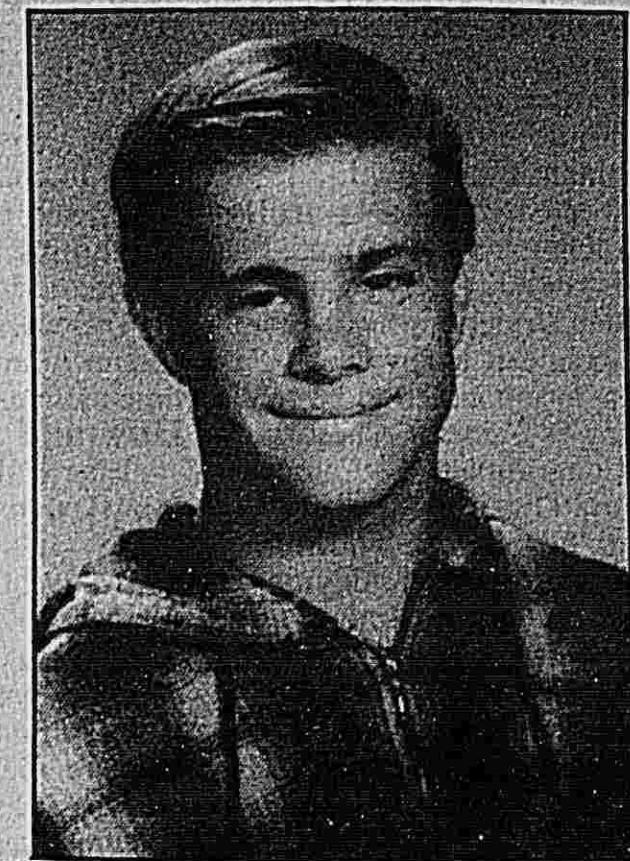

"He wasn't a starter when he came in but he worked himself into a starter," Walker said. He was well-liked by the team and the team took it hard," Walker said.

Walker said the team will be wearing Grasser's number 22 on their helmets and their uniforms for the rest of the season.

Guidance Counselor, Cathy Cratty said the school is still mourning his loss.

"It's been a very hard week. On Wednesday when we heard the news that they were going to unplug life support there were over 200 kids in the auditorium crying and upset. We had four buses going to his funeral," Cratty said.

The driver, Brandy Luciano, 16, Lake Villa, wasn't seriously injured in the accident. She was treated and released from St. Therese Medical Center. Luciano was charged with failure to stop at a stop sign.

Safety upgrade requested for intersection

by MARY FOLEY
Lakeland Newspapers

After three died at the intersection of Deep Lake Road and North Avenue, officials of the Village of Antioch plan to send a letter to Lake County to upgrade safety measures.

In an emotional appeal, Pete Lezeau, a resident of the Deer Trails at Pine Hill Lakes, asked the village board for help with the intersection. According to Lezeau, there have been a number of near-misses and many residents have voiced concerns in the past.

On Oct. 22, a car, driven by 16 year-old Brandy Luciano, shot through the stop sign and was struck by a car driven by Janine Kennedy. As a result of that accident, Kenneth Grasser, a Lindenhurst teen, Kennedy, and her 5 month-old fetus were killed.

According to the Antioch Village Board, the County owns both roads. A full board approved Lezeau's request to send a letter to Lake County asking for some upgrade of the safety measures. Several options were discussed including a stop light, a flashing caution light, and a reduction in the speed limit.

Increasing the safety of the intersection is a grave concern to Pine Hill Lakes residents. Road construction is continuing on Silver Lake/Depot Road and many residents must pass through the intersection on their way into the Village of Antioch.

Best in world

I was recently given another opportunity to spend an entire day with MeeMee's girl, Alyssa Janelle, and as in the past, I enjoyed every minute of it. As I mentioned before, I let Alyssa Janelle do anything within reason when she visits. However, when I do say no to something she readily complies. Once again I found myself laughing over her antics and I repeated to her how much I loved her and that she was the best little baby girl in "the whole world." She gave me her all-knowing look that told me she understood and a hug from her told me she loved me too. Later in the day, I began to remind her of her specialness just one more time. This time I began "you are the best little baby girl in" and she finished for me "the whole world." Yep, that's my Alyssa. Pat Lepsi, move on over as granny Lizard is in competition for being the proudest grandmother.

Just kidding, there is definitely room for both of us to brag, not to mention grandmothers Elaine Lasky, JoAnne Weber, Fran Adelizzi, Linda Boerman, Donna Marsich, Lu Caulfield, Rose

November already. Looks like it is time for "The Lizard" to appear in public wearing her "Turkey Shoes." I must be getting old, because lately days become weeks and weeks become months before I have even accomplished the things I had planned for the previous month. Oh me oh my!!

It is now time to wish a very happy November birthday to many nice people in our Antioch area. Happy birthday to, Nicole Adelizzi, Celia Bennett, Laurie Cheterbok, Brandy Filips, Ed Harrison (fire builder), Eric Horvath, Ricky Klean, Sarah Alicia Komperda, Elizabeth Lass, Cindy Marquart, Walter Martens, Jr., Gina Parenti, Jim Schmehl, Jr., Nathan Sachewesky, Karen Schmehl, Danny Tybor. Wedding anniversary wishes are in order for Don and Donna Marsich, Barb and Dan Filips and Liz and Jim Schmehl.

AARP, First Chicago sponsor auto insurance reduction plan

Antioch AARP Chapter President Genevieve Horsch and First Chicago Bank-Antioch President Carl McWherter put up the first poster on the bank's front door alerting the public to registration for the "55-Alive" program.

All drivers age over 55 will be able to reduce their auto insurance premiums significantly by just attending a two-afternoon seminar at the Antioch Senior Center, 817 Holbek Dr., in Antioch on Tuesday, Nov. 16 and Wednesday, Nov. 17 from 1 to 5 p.m. The nationwide program called "55 Alive" was created by the national Association of Retired Persons. Locally, it is co-sponsored by the Antioch Chapter of AARP, and First Chicago Bank-Antioch. Attendance is open to any driver age 55 years or over.

"There are no tests or examinations," says Antioch AARP President Genevieve Horsch. "All insurance companies are required by Illinois law to give a premium reduction to drivers over 55, who have attended both of these two, four-hour sessions. Discounts vary by amount and type of coverage. Typically they range from $50 to $100 a year, are effective for three years, and are renewable. Reductions for Wisconsin residents are up to each insurance company, but most do give discounts," she said. "The most important savings, however, may be your life," added First Chicago Bank President Carl McWherter, whose bank is co-sponsoring and underwriting the course as a public service.

Total cost is $8. The bank is providing free refreshments at coffee breaks. Attendance is limited, and advance registration is required at the bank, 424 Lake St.

Ruined Christmas and Halloween

Thanks ACLU and People for the American Way for taking away the celebration of Christmas and Easter in our schools. They were fun holidays. Never once did I think of it as worship. Go back and read our constitution the right way! If you didn't want your children to attend, they could have gone into another room and studied.

Bullies and cowards

I am a Vietnam Veteran and I am calling about this abortion issue. I saw a lot of things happen in Vietnam. A lot of people that were mutilated. But I have never seen anything like what I was shown in film about abortion several years ago. To have that happen to a human being.... I am not really a Christian, but I do believe in God. I believe that Christians are the biggest hypocrites on the face of the earth to do that to a kid. They are bullies and cowards, just like Bill Clinton.

Walking while impaired

This tops it all. A "gentleman" came out of a local bar in Round Lake Beach. The man was so drunk he fell into a ditch. The bar owners and bartenders should be held responsible. This is not right. It makes me sick.

Choking in Fox Lake

I am calling in reference to leaf burning in this area. I live in Fox Lake. My daughter and I were confined in our home on a beautiful sunny day with the windows and doors shut because our neighbors insist on burning leaves. We were nearly suffocated by the smoke. Come on, it's the '90s. Buy bags and recycle.

A little too far

I would like to respond to the person who wondered why no private company has built an entertainment center. They have. You can join Condell Medical Center for a $400 start-up fee, and $100 a month. You can swim and work out there if you have any energy left after driving to Libertyville.

Mail theft

I think the parents of the children in the area of Fox Lake should have a serious talk with their children about stealing mail. If I catch whoever is stealing my mail, I will definitely prosecute to the fullest extent of the law. I have already filled out reports. Everyone better talk to their kids or there is going to be trouble.

More garbage

I got that flyer from the village and I am not going to fill it out. Why should I pay for garbage pick-up if the mayor doesn't?

More Elvis

I believe all of you guys that have seen Elvis. I saw him at Frighfest. He was posing as a monster. I still believe he is alive.

Come on

I read that Island Lake does not want a senior citizens mobile home park. I would like the residents to go to Harmony Village in Wauconda and see how nice the seniors live. They are enjoying their homes, not nursing homes. Come on Island Lake, the seniors are the ones who built your town in the first place.

Take it easy, fella

I am from Chicago and am considering moving to Antioch. However, the people of Antioch drive like jug-heads. I like to get across town quickly. They drive much better in Chicago. People, get with it. When the light's green, let's go.

Pleased parent

I just moved to Spring Grove and my children attend school in Fox Lake. I attended a council meeting and I was impressed with the principal's efforts to give our children the best education possible.

Warm thanks

I am the person who called needing a coat. I am very happy that you called me back. Thank you.

Avoid Rte. 53 trap

Uncertainty should be removed from the future of Rte. 12.

Public input gathered at hearings at Wauconda, Richmond and Palatine has revealed solid support for an Illinois Dept. of Transportation (IDOT) plan to expand Rte. 12 from four to six lanes for the stretch running from DesPlaines to Fox Lake.

IDOT already is well along in its planning of the improvement that long has been recommended in studies for transportation needs well into the next century. Expansion of Rte. 12 (Rand Rd.) isn't regarded as futuristic or theoretical. The roadway is one of 66 Chicago area thoroughfares regarded as strategic in studies geared for a year 2010 benchmark.

The future of Rte. 12 inextricably is entwined, for obvious reasons, with extension of Rte. 53 as a tollway northward through Lake County. Planners, though, and a significant percentage of the motoring public regard the two highway corridors as separate and distinct. There is evidence and strong support for doing both projects.

From a design point of view, expanding Rte. 12 to carry a higher volume of traffic will be much more complicated than Rte. 53 because the right-of-way is totally urbanized from the DesPlaines starting point to north of Wauconda. So the sooner the project is approved the better for all, even though construction may not begin for years.

One of the reasons why the Rte. 53 extension has been so controversial is its volatility. Twenty-five years ago Rte. 53 in Lake County was a viable project. Then it was mothballed. At one point IDOT acted like Rte. 53 had been given an unceremonious funeral. Bitter disagreement remains whether Rte. 53 officially ever was buried. What is known is that the project was revived three years ago.

The off and on status of Rte. 53 led to such uncertainties as permitting Mundelein to allow home building in the pathway. This is both patently unfair to builders and buyers plus being a disgrace. Steps should be taken to guard against the Rte. 12 upgrade falling into the same trap.

Accused have rights

Editor:

On behalf of the Sexual Abuse Intervention Network of Lake County, I would like to urge extreme caution to those who are predisposed to taking sides in sexual abuse cases.

Once an individual comes forward with an accusation of sexual abuse, both the accuser and the accused are in a position of great vulnerability. In order to protect both parties, it is crucial that newspaper reports are responsible and non-speculative, and that readers withhold their judgment until the facts of the case have been sorted out by the legal system.

Those who have been sexually victimized have a right to be believed and to not be revictimized. Those who have been accused have the right to due process.

revenues exceeded operating expenses. Before leaving office, Gov. Jim Thompson signed the Tollway Highway Act of 1990 which included giving the Tollway Authority the right to use tolls collected on one toll road on any other part of the system, or to add new toll roads to that system. This means that tolls will never go down, and that users of one tollway could be paying for another tollway even if they will seldom or never use that other roadway.

The Tri-State Tollway is a cash cow, and with the freedom to use these funds for other than the Tri-State Tollroad, the Toll Authority has the "deep pockets" to circumvent normal economic constraints with an ability to initiate highway projects wherever political need presents itself.

I urge every user of the tollway system to write their elected representatives in Springfield and request he or she initial or support legislation to repeal the Tollway Highway Act of 1990. This will force the Toll Authority to apply user fees only on the roads where the revenue is collected. Who knows, we could even see the Tri-State tolls drop from 40 cents or a few of those toll gates closed permanently.

Editor:

Each of our elected representatives in Springfield who voted to have Route 53 extended into Lake County as a toll road to be built by the Illinois Toll Highway Authority have, very deftly, managed to increase your taxes and mine once again.

Toll roads were supposed to be paid for and maintained from user fees, with the tolls being reduced when the construction bonds were paid off and toll

Court order won't stop stalkers

by BILL SCHROEDER

Guarding against the stalker is the nightmare of law enforcement.

"If someone is out to get you, it's pretty hard to stop them," admits Sheriff Clint Grinnell. The sheriff couched comments about stalker prevention by pointing out that not even the President of the United States is immune.

The domestic order of protection, the key document in Illinois designed to curb stalkers, is insufficient to curb the individual consumed with intent to do harm, according to the sheriff. Taking the intended victim into protective custody is the only sure way of guaranteeing safety, but that isn't practical.

One thing police need in reducing stalking violence is complete cooperation from the intended victim, Sheriff Grinnell reported.

Need long term funding to solve public school mess

by ROBERT J. LONG

By the time this letter could be published, the most recent school elections will be over, and the results of the newest bond issue will be known. Rather than worrying about who won what, and whether our communities are willing to pay more taxes to support our education, I think it is about time to consider what exactly we are doing to ourselves in these campaigns, and what sort of practical education we are giving our children.

The past few years have seen true hatred develop between different segments of our population. The war of words in your publication between the groups for and against the various bond issues has grown more and more bitter and divisive. Acknowledged common ground appears to be diminishing rapidly, if indeed, there is any left at all. The level of rancor exceeds anything I have ever seen.

Both sides need to take some time to reflect on what the other side's position is based on and its underlying reasoning. Despite the numbers bandied about by both sides, it is pretty hard to imagine senior citizens on limited and fixed incomes being willing to pay more in taxes to support an institution which they have virtually no direct contact with. On the other hand, the parents of children in the school system can be expected to have a high degree of frustration with their inability to persuade voters to pass bond issues that they truly believe are not only important, but are critical to their children's chances for success in this world.

All concerned seem to have forgotten that they are teaching the children that name-calling and vituperative invective, peppered with ridicule and insults is the way to best express a need, and to acquire the end result. When I was in school, we were taught that only the Marxists and Fascists really believed that the ends justified the means.

Both sides in the controversy need to remember that a democracy is more than mere rule by will of the majority. It is rule by will of the majority with respect for the views and rights of the minority. While I realize that respect is a rare commodity these days, I think our children deserve to be taught civility and that when a cause is right, it will eventually prevail over its odious detractors.

It seems to me that the real common ground that all of the partisans should be pursuing is a proper, long term funding solution for our children's needs. I believe that should come from Springfield or Washington. If the state or federal government can't properly and fairly allocate the tax money it takes in to educate our children, then it should stop taking money out of our pockets.

I urge every taxpayer and voter to contact the legislators and the governor and demand that they live up to their constitutional obligation to properly fund education throughout this state. We must remind them that their political future is dependent on their ability to find a fair solution to this crisis. Our own future, as well as the future of our children is at stake.

Editor's note: Robert J. Long is a practicing attorney. He and his family reside in Antioch.

Richardson deplores link with clerk sweepstakes

Party Lines, the Lakeland Newspapers column on political commentary, is prepared from staff reports Rumors are flying thick and fast over possible candidates to succeed County Clerk Linda Hess, a Democrat. Count out Coroner Barbara Richardson from Republican speculation. Please.

Richardson left no doubt that she was more than a little indignant about having her name bantered about as a potential GOP candidate for clerk, a post the Democrats have held for more than 20 years. GOP strategists advanced the theory that the popular Richardson is the only Republican who can reclaim the office.

"I wish that talk hadn't circulated. I heard about the clerk race after returning from an out-of-town trip. There's nothing to it at all," Richardson declared. "I'm committed to serving as coroner as long as I'm in public office. I love my job." Richardson left no doubt that she didn't view the clerk speculation as complimentary to her.

Names, names, names---County Board Rep. Bob Neal, "Mr. Everything," keeps surfacing as a Republican candidate for county clerk. When asked about the race, Neal responds with a "could be" smile. Dana Sabonjian Depke could be persuaded to run for the clerk post, but a lot of fence mending will be needed. Depke's still bitter about lack of party support in Waukegan in her losing effort for city office. If her name is familiar it's because Dana's father-in-law is County Chairman Bob Depke.

County Democratic Chairman Terry Link is calling his county clerk and sheriff candidates recognition that the party is serious about bolstering up its west Lake County following.

"They're both from west of Rte. 45," Link enthuses, referring to Police Chief Richard Jablonski of Round Lake Beach, running for sheriff, and Village Clerk Kathleen A. Ryg of Vernon Hills, candidate for county clerk. Link insists that he has candidates in the wings for county treasurer and regional superintendent of schools, the other two county-wide offices on the ballot next year.

No position---State Rep. Lauren Beth Gash (D-Highland Park) isn't about to be drawn into two hot highway issues being waged in southeast Lake County, widening of Lake-Cook Rd. and upgrading of Rte. 22. No position, says

Party Lines

Gash, who said she views her job as "bringing together" opposing forces on the road questions.

One question that Gash is willing to speak out on is the job Terry Link is doing as county Democratic chairman. "Great. He's hard working and fair," exclaimed the first term legislator.

Gash is directing her energies to dispel the myth that the suburbs are Republican territory. Gash delights in talking about a "suburban coalition" with bi-partisan participation. Has anyone else heard about such a political animal?

Parking woes---Fox Lake Mayor Kenneth Hamsher is on record that his counterpart in DesPlaines best be wary the next time passing through on Rte. 12. Hamsher attended a municipal workshop in DesPlaines and was chagrined to find a "nice, up front parking spot" turn into an illegal location. DesPlaines parking police not only tagged Hamsher for a parking violation, but added three more tickets when the meeting ran long. Hamsher paid a $9 fine and made a mental note to detour DesPlaines in the future.

Unchallenged---With a fast start, County Board Rep. Mary Beattie (R-Lake Forest) isn't expected to receive

Dana Depke

Bob Neal

much of a challenge if at all in her campaign to succeed State Rep. Virginia Fiester Frederich in the Illinois House district covering Lake Forest, Lake Bluff, North Chicago and Waukegan.

Beattie, 68, hopes to fend off competition in the primary with early endorsements from State Sen.

Adeline Geo-Karis and Sue Gravenhorst, University of Illinois trustee from Lake Forest. Beattie has lined up a campaign team of Republican stalwarts including Bruce Chandler and Diane Karzas of Lake Forest as managers. Treasurer is Terry Campion and secretary is Mary Gram of Lake Bluff. Hank and Marian Dieterich of Waukegan have signed on as coordinators. Dorothea Thompson will be in charge of getting out Beattie votes in North Chicago.

Before getting elected to the Lake County Board, Beattie was Shields Township GOP chairperson and a long-time precinct committeewoman.

Times changing---Liz Fayer, the letter-writing Buffalo Grove Democrat, took Party Lines to task for letting an "r" slip into her last name. "It's FAYER not Frayer," Liz wrote. OK! OK! "It would be nice if you were fair and had the guts to actually print my letter about McRae. Newspapers are supposed to give both sides. Well, we've heard your sickeningly sweet pumping up of Colin. How about printing an opposing view? Not all of your readers are Republicans. The county is changing (thanks to all of your Republican pro-development officials) and it's time for you to change too." Liz signed herself, "Democrat and Proud."

Avoiding trouble---When Democrat Sheila Smith announced her candidacy for lieutenant governor of Illinois, she hop-scotched around the state, visiting Springfield, Belleville, Mt. Vernon, Marion, Herrin, Carbondale, Metropolis, Cairo, Quincy, Peoria, Moline, Rock Island, Rockford and DeKalb on a five-day caravan. Lake County was conspicuously missing. That'll give you an idea why Smith bombed here when she tried to unseat Congressman Phil Crane last year.

GOP gala---Officers of the Lake County Federation of Young Republicans are going all out to make sure the turn out for their Christmas party is the largest outpouring of young Republicans ever. They're asking all young Republicans to reserve Saturday, Dec. 11. The event will be held at the Lehman Mansion, Lake Villa. Details are promised to follow.

Gonwa says creative solutions are needed

by SUSAN KLEIN
Lakeland Newspapers

Now is the time to look for adequate and equitable ways to fund Lake County's 45 school districts if financial troubles like those which face North Chicago's School District 187 are to be avoided in other districts, Regional Superintendent Edward J. Gonwa told members of the Libertyville/Mundelein League of Women Voters.

"It's time for the state leadership, government, taxpayers, and business people to come together to come up with some creative solutions," he said.

Although Lake County is one of the wealthiest in the state, much could be done to more equitably share the wealth among school districts, he said.

Gonwa cited imbalances in the local, state and federal funding given to various schools in Lake County.

Stevenson High School in Lincolnshire relies mostly on local property taxes, while Zion-Benton receives more federal funding than any other high school in the county. North Chicago schools, while enrolling 45 percent of its students from the Great Lakes Naval Base, only receives 17 percent of its funding from federal sources, according to District 187 school board member Craig Peterkin.

The regional superintendent said he wants to see an equitable solution not just for North Chicago, whose financial problems arose in part due to high costs and low assessed valuations in the district, but for any school district in trouble.

Allowing state aid to be indexed according to cost of living based on regional differences is one suggestion Gonwa offered. He also suggested changing the process for the dissolution of districts to include involvement of surrounding districts.

Gonwa called on League members to get involved in seeking solutions. "Let's start from today and move forward," he said. "We have an obligation to help

Paddock case goes back to grand jury

by MARY FOLEY
Lakeland Newspapers

Prosecutors had the trial of Cheryl Paddock continued until Monday so that the Grand Jury could amend the wording of the charges. However, in a surprising move, the Grand Jury also added four more counts of aggravated criminal sexual abuse. Paddock will be arraigned on the new charges on Thursday.

Paddock is now charged with eight counts of aggravated criminal sexual abuse and two counts of aggravated criminal sexual assault. The first four sexual abuse charges were sent back to the grand jury on Wednesday when it was discovered that some wording was inadvertently left out.

The standard wording, which would include the charge that Paddock performed the alleged sexual acts for her own gratification, needed to be added to the indictment. Without it, the prosecution would find it difficult to prove all the elements of the alleged crime.

This high-profile case stems from allegations made by a former student of Grayslake High School. The student charges that Paddock, who is a Grayslake High School golf coach, abused her several times in 1989 to 1991 while she was a student at the school.

Superintendent's salary in question in District 114

by TINA L. SWIECH
Lakeland Newspapers

Some discrepancies over two salary contracts for Fox Lake District 114's superintendent will hopefully be alleviated after the next board meeting Nov. 9, according to Art Smejkal.

But board member Dan Jakes is not so sure. Jakes said he has been forced to take the issue up with the Lake County State's Attorney after numerous discussions with fellow board members proved to be in vain.

Jakes said he has been working on the matter for the past four weeks and didn't want to bring it up publicly during election time so as "not to embarrass anyone" running for board.

Jakes displayed two different salary contracts for Smejkal, three-year superintendent of district 114. Both of the documents were dated for the same day—Jan. 25, 1993; and each had different salary amounts.

One contract showed "a substantial amount more" than the other, said Jakes. The board member said he does not wish to divulge any figures yet, but will soon, as he plans on bringing the issue up publicly at the school board meetings now.

School Treasurer Judy Aremka said that she was told by Smejkal in August to increase his paychecks, because he told her that the school board had approved an increase.

Aremka claims that she saw nothing pertaining to a salary increase in any of the board minutes.

Smejkal maintains that everything was done on the up and up, but some errors were made with his contracts, he said.

"What we're trying to do, is get this whole thing straightened out," said Smejkal. The superintendent said that the issue has been discussed in executive session with board members.

The superintendent agreed the whole issue is a confusing one, and he explained that his salary was higher one time than the other because of sick days and vacation days.

"In my contract a per diem amount for unused sick and vacation days (is stated)," Smejkal said. If the superintendent elected to use the days, his salary would be a different amount, he said. Without the per diem his salary would be lower and it would also affect his TRS (Teachers Retirement System).

"The (school) attorney is redoing a contract. We (the board) all agreed that there were some errors made and it has to be straightened out," said Smejkal.

Jakes said that salary figures will be made known to the public when he brings up the issue at the public board meetings.

The six-year board member also stated that if he has been misinterpreting the documents that he has, he will be the first one to apologize publicly.

Two newcomers earn seats in Warren High's election

Voters opted for change in the Warren Township High School election, electing two new board members.

"I was surprised because there were not a lot of big issues," Karen Friend said.

Friend gained the third spot on the board with 1,799 votes. The other newcomer is the second vote-getter, Joan Paparigan, with 1,855 votes. Incumbent Jan Brennan led the way with 2,144 votes and Richard Grabowski fourth with 1,548 votes.

Friend questioned why the school is facing growth dilemmas now.

"I am not happy with the fact we are running out of space after seven years," Karen Friend said.

Friend, a one-time teacher, is a Gurnee resident.

"We should have been building for not just what students are here now, but projected greater," Friend said.

Warren High was rebuilt following a fire in December of 1984, which leveled 90 percent of the old high school. The new building was completed in 1987. It has a capacity of 2,200 students, a figure which could be reached in two years.

"Growth and what will happen with the building," Friend said of issues which reached accord with voters.

"I thought it was time for a change on the board," Friend said.

Friend, in her first time seeking elected office, ran an independent campaign. On of her sons, Rick, is a 1990 WTHS graduate while another, David, is a senior at the Gurnee school. Friend was a candidate and was interviewed to replace Ron Kurpier on the board after Kurpier resigned, but Russell Schneider received the appointment.

While saying she does not know how the team teaching will work in some areas, she said there is a "general unhappiness with the emphasis placed on certain programs."

Friend believes she can combine her teaching background in Arkansas with her bookkeeping duties at family-operated H. A. Friend Engraving and Printing of Zion.

Incumbent Robert Kofler was not elected to a new term. He received 1,138 votes. Challengers and their vote totals: Helen Scott, 1,289; Frank Lobello 1,273; and David Jonnaitis, 1,265.

Youth leaders will attend peer interaction conference

by SUZIE REED
Lakeland Newspapers

Area high school students will find out about "Livin' on the Edge" at the 10th annual Lake County Peer Interaction Conference to be held at the College of Lake County from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. Nov. 9.

Student leaders from Antioch, Lake Forest, Libertyville, Mundelein and Stevenson High Schools will participate in the conference. Organizers expect over 300 students to attend the event.

Planned by representatives from the five schools, the conference will focus on reducing high-risk behavior and encouraging students to become involved in anti-drug programs in their communities.

Scheduled speakers include Lake County Circuit Court Judge Barbara Guilleran-Johnson, and Randy Carson, associate principal of Libertyville High School. The program will also include a video presentation of "Please God, I'm Only Seventeen," and a theatrical performance by the Stevenson High School Theatre Outreach Program.

"We want to emphasize the positive things that kids are doing, making positive choices in their lives, joining groups that give them a different kind of peer support," said Carson. "It's a type of reverse pressure."

Representing Mundelein High School at the conference will be students Vanessa Wasik, Becky Ryan, Angie LeVally and Jennie Johnson, and coordinator Frank Giannamore.

Those planning to attend from Libertyville High School are Eric Archer, Angela Bickett, Nathan Bishop, Jennifer Carr, Laura Dunwoodie, Jana Jensen, Erik Johnson, Gretchen Kemp, Sara Leider, Jennifer Lynch, Paula Pasquesi, Joe Popeck, Lara Safran, Anna Sahadeo and Kristina Vann.

Spoke and Ski presents third annual ski jacket trade-in

It's not much for one to ask! Just a little escape from the wind and cold...just a warm jacket to wrap around a chilled body. Yet, for many suburban children and their mothers, staying warm during the winter months is not as easy as it sounds. It's the unfortunate story for hundreds of suburban children and their mothers, many victims of abuse, who actually live in their automobiles, laundry rooms of apartment buildings, stranger's garages, church basements and forest preserves from Cook to Lake County and beyond.

The fortunate story is that you can "make a difference" in the lives of these homeless and abused women and children in the suburbs while saving a little money of your own. Spoke and Ski specialty stores of

Park Ridge and Vernon Hills announce their third annual ski jacket trade-in program through Nov. 24, and calls upon everyone to bring in their usable, clean adult and children's winter jackets to Spoke and Ski stores in Park Ridge and Vernon Hills for a $20 discount on a new adult ski jacket or $10 off a new children's jacket.

Industrial park planned in northern Lake County

by SUZIE REED

Lakeland Newspapers

The industrial balance in Lake County will shift a bit to the north with the development of Park Place Business Center in Lake Villa.

The 75-acre tract located on the west side of Rte. 83 south of Rte. 132, is owned by Owen Wagener Realty who plans to develop the property in three phases.

"We've sold 12 lots; we still have about eight left for Phase I," said agent Shaun Burke. "Construction for the road (Park Ave.) has just begun and should be completed by spring."

The site has a number of attractive features. About 10 minutes from Interstate 94, it is also accessible by rail.

Low Lake County taxes and flexible zoning are important considerations according to Burke.

"The pricing is extremely competitive if you compare it to places in Gurnee and Libertyville," said Burke. "The lots are fully improved."

"We're looking for high profile businesses," he added, saying the buyers were generally in manufacturing, and in distribution in particular.

The plans first hit the drawing board two years ago, according to company president Tim Wagener.

"We had a ten-year time frame and we're exceeding the projections," he said. "We've had a tremendous response. We can start delivering sites next spring and occupants should be in operation by next fall. We're the only industrial park coming out of the ground right now. This is land that has been farmland since the 1850s."

The village of Lake Villa annexed the area known as the Wilton property.

"It's ideal for light industrial uses," said Wagener. "It will add to the tax base but won't tax village services. It's a very good type of development for the community."

Potential businesses include medical companies, printing and machining operations and some multi-tenant buildings. A small number of retail operations may locate there as well.

"It will be a high-end modern business park," said Wagener.

The ground-breaking is scheduled for 11 a.m. Nov. 10.

Route 12 widening would positively impact business

by SPENCER SCHEIN
Lakeland Newspapers

Although an Illinois Department of Transportation proposal for widening U.S. Route 12 from four to six-lanes has a long way to go before ever becoming a reality, area village officials think it will have a positive impact on local businesses.

The project would stretch 38-miles from Route 31 in Richmond in McHenry County to Golf Road in Cook County, affecting a number of Lake County southwestern villages, including Wauconda, Lake Zurich, Long Grove, Hawthorn Woods, Deer Park and Kildeer.

It proposes what IDOT foresees happening by the year 2010, but without even one dollar to spend, they are far-short of the approximately $200 million in today's dollars necessary to start construction.

Widening of the road north of Lake Zurich will not be much of a problem, said Rich Starr, IDOT highway systems engineer said, as they own 200 feet of right-of-way north of Route 22.

The southern areas will cause the most problems, as the drainage along the route is curb-type, unlike the middle open drainage ditch in the north, making for a tighter fit, Starr said.

Lake Zurich Village Administrator John F. Dixon said the plans were "really rough," but said they were not an alternative to extending Route 53.

"Route 53 is more important and needs to be done first," Dixon said.

Starr said the plan was not an alternative but based upon Route 53 already being completed by 2010.

Long Grove Village Manager D.M. "Cal" Doughty said they believe it could be an alternative, based on Route 12 being a limited access roadway, something opposite of the plan.

He said the IDOT plan is one mostly based on a study the organization conducted four years ago. The state department promised to get back to them in six months with the results but waited until now.

Doughty said IDOT changed the study the village submitted and made it look bad. He would like to see the plan taken further by eliminating most of the at-grade intersections, which could make it a viable alternative to extending Route 53, something Long Grove vehemently opposes.

He said Long Grove supports the effort and would like to see the project started immediately instead of waiting for 10 years when more development has come in and the road has more curb-cuts.

Wauconda Mayor James L. Eschenbauch is in favor of the plan, but would like to see some changes made. He suggested IDOT place sound barriers along the route to block out increased noise from residential areas, especially in the village's Country Ridge and Larkdale areas.

"I think those should be installed right along when they (widen the route)," Eschenbauch said.

The only major change in Wauconda would be the blocking off of Slocum Lake Road from the northbound on-ramp at Route 176, Starr said.

Eschenbauch said the plans will provide easier access for the village's future expansion north of 12 and will make it easier to get to those businesses.

He thought the construction of access roads along 12 would be of help to people trying to get on and off to get to businesses.

Plans for construction in Lake Zurich are a little more radical, with proposals to make certain side-streets off of 12 right-in or -out only, Starr said.

Dixon said the village would like to see something done about the hill at the intersection of Routes 12 and 22 which makes it impossible to see oncoming traffic on 22, especially without having a turn arrow. This would not only improve safety but bring more drivers through the heavily business dominated area.

IDOT's plans show an at-grade separation, but they would like to see the sight differential removed by lowering the hill.

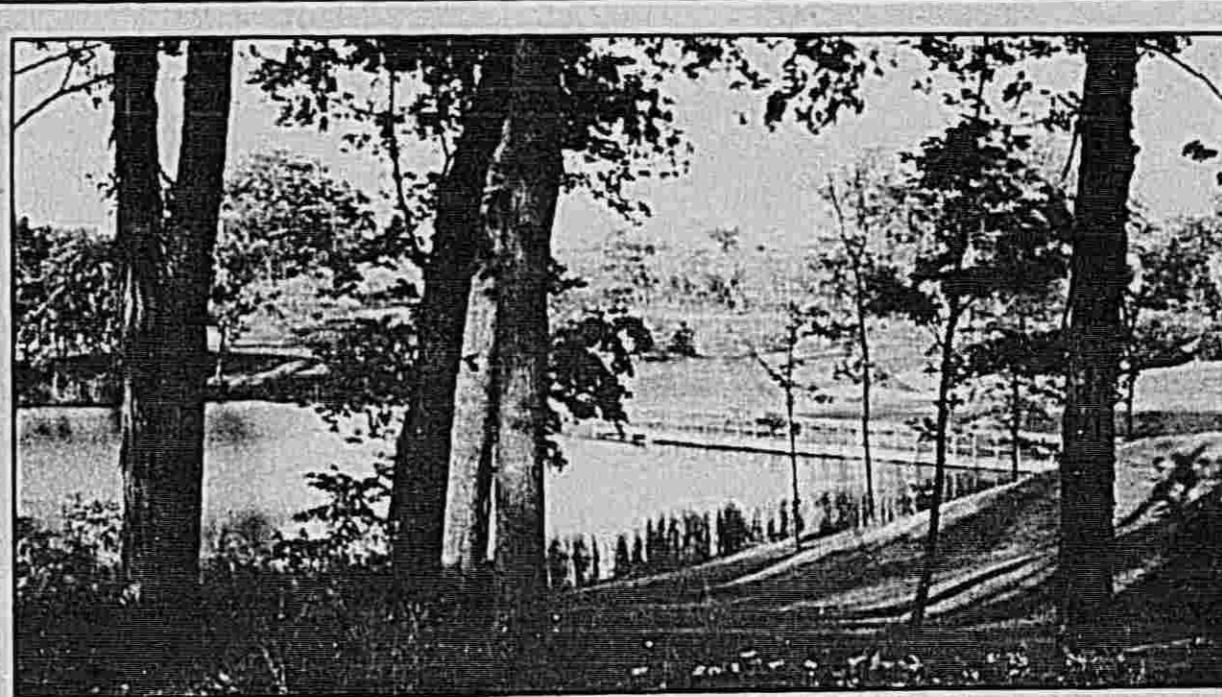

Starr said they still need to complete 1,300 miles of study which should take the next three years, and then prioritize the different parts along 12 and prioritize 12 up against other projects.

Dixon estimated it would be 10 years before any construction could begin.

Even if IDOT is able to start the project, Starr said they would not be able to satisfy the proposed plan by the year 2010.

Concerning Route 53, the Illinois Highway Toll Authority told the Lake County Corridor Planning Council it needs one year to come to a decision on whether or not to participate in the agreed upon conditions with IDOT.

Kildeer Village President Barbara Schwietert said the toll authority said they needed the time to allow their attorneys time to review the agreements, which she said took four years to make.

Alter Design completes headquarter's expansion

Alter Design Builders has completed a 36,445 square foot headquarters expansion for Zebra Technologies Corporation in Vernon Hills announced Morton R. Borkan, President of the Wilmette-based design/build firm.

The expansion was completed in two phases: a 25,445 square foot warehouse and manufacturing addition to the existing 67,200 square foot building and the construction of an 11,000 square foot mezzanine within the existing structure that provided for new office space.

Zebra Technologies, established in 1970 as Data Specialties, Inc., is a leading maker of thermal-transfer labeling machines that are primarily designed to print bar-code labels, used to track inventory and medical specimens. The company currently has 325 employees at its Vernon Hills facility. The expansion program is expected to pave the way for the addition of new employees as the company continues to grow.

The building expansion was designed to match precisely the pre-cast concrete exterior of the existing building which was originally constructed by Alter Design Builders in 1989. To allow Zebra's operations to continue unabated during construction, a temporary plywood wall was erected next to an existing exterior wall. With the temporary wall in place, the adjoining exterior wall was disassembled and reinstalled at one end of the newly expanded area.

Upon completion of the new structure, some operations in the existing building were relocated. The 11,000 square foot office expansion was then created on a new mezzanine level, built in the vacated area.

Alter Design Builders retained Jeffrey Brown and Associates as project architect and Manhard Consulting, Ltd., as site engineer. Augie Ziccarelli represented Alter Design Builders.

Alter Design Builders is the design/build and construction management affiliate of The Alter Group, a Wilmette-based real estate and development services firm. Founded in 1973, Alter Design Builders has constructed more than 9,000,000 square feet of office, industrial, R&D and retail space, including 4,300,000 square feet of build-to-suit facilities for corporate clients.

Sisters bring books at a bargain to Wauconda

by SPENCER SCHEIN
Lakeland Newspapers

A penny for your thoughts may not buy too much, but a handful will get you a book at Laura's Pennywise Paperbacks, 115 S. Main St., in Wauconda.

The used bookstore has been greeted warmly since its grand opening in August by residents and others from around the area looking to buy quality books without having to pay full price.

Susan Whitlock and Pam Zills, sisters and co-owners of the bookstore, have solved that problem by selling paperback books for half of the cover price, which is quite a savings when most new paperbacks can cost up to $6.99.

The two sisters have always had a fascination for books, and took the opportunity to open their own bookstall, named after their late grandmother, after gaining the necessary skills.

Whitlock had worked in the customer service department of Ducks Unlimited in Lake Zurich until the corporation flew the coop to Memphis, Tenn., more than one year ago. After that she began working at B. Dalton in Lake Zurich, while Zills pursued a career as a church secretary.

The two chose to open the store in the former location of an antique shop in Wauconda to fill a need for a local used bookstore in the area. The nearest location was in Vernon Hills or Crystal Lake, Whitlock said.

A guest book lists people from Fox Lake, Lake Zurich, Barrington, Buffalo Grove, and many on vacation from Texas, Maine and Washington.

Not wanting to have a dark and claustrophobic store, the sister's families helped design and transform the store so that it would have the ambiance of a library or new bookstore.

"We wanted to have a more relaxed atmosphere," Whitlock said. The store holds their personality, with pine shelves lining the two side walls, with three more in the center, holding more than 4,500 books of their rapidly growing collection.

'We wanted to have a more relaxed atmosphere.'

—Susan Whitlock, co-owner
Laura's Pennywise Paperbacks

at face value, although most are priced at forty or fifty cents.

Laura's has a surprising number of people who donate books back to the store after reading them, with some people even saying they want to help the community by helping the store by sharing their books, Whitlock said.

They also offer either money or 20 percent credit towards other purchases.

A Pennysaver card is available to those who purchase a lot of books, offering a free book under a $4.95 cover price after 10 books at $2 or more have been bought.

Although some days are slow, nearly 90 percent of the people who come in leave with a book under their arm, Whitlock said.

In keeping up with the holidays, Laura's is holding a Christmas celebration the weekend of Dec. 11, when customers can imbibe in spiced cider and munch on homemade cookies while listening to holiday music.

Closed on Mondays, Laura's is open Tuesday through Friday, 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Saturday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and Sunday from noon to 4 p.m.

Company exhibits anti-flood gear

A new Lake County company, The Sandbagger Corp., Wauconda, exhibited its anti-flooding equipment at a meeting of the Lake County Emergency Services and Disaster Agency.

Stacey and James Kanzler, Lake County residents, after driving through the Illinois and Iowa floods this summer en route to a Colorado vacation decided they wanted to help people in the flooding areas. Stacey, who is president of the new company, developed a design for machines to fill sandbags at the rate of 700 to 900 per hour using women and children as volunteers as young as eight years of age. Her equipment at minimum does the work of 40 hard working men per hour.

On exhibit were two different style machines used experimentally at the flood scene by them after they returned from their trip. In Illinois the fire chief and the mayor of Ellis Grove, Ill., wrote: "It is amazing how well they work and how fast they can fill sandbags in an emergency situation when time is of the utmost importance. Many people here owe you a thank-you."

Stacey said the machines will be priced so that every government unit that wants the machines will be able to afford it. She said the cost of one machine will be far less than the claim of one flooded home owner.

Increasing violence in lives of children

Increasingly, as we read the papers and watch the media on television, we hear of numerous incidents of violence both towards and by young people.

The shocking murder of Michael Jordan's father by the two accused teenagers brought a wave of disbelief to all of us. What is happening in our society when young persons feel so enraged and lack consciences that they have no value for life?

Years ago in our classrooms, "Stop, Drop and Roll" meant we were teaching fire prevention and safety during Fire Prevention Week. Currently, youngsters in inner city schools are being cautioned to dodge bullets flying through the air in their communities and told to drop to the floor when they hear gunshots!

First Lady Hillary Clinton spoke on a Larry King telecast and expressed that among her agenda of priorities is a national concern for violence in the lives of children.

Those of us working with children in child care facilities are aware that the young children we serve are increasingly being exposed to highly stressful events on television—such as physical abuse, murder, war, floods, kidnappings and the pressures presented by divorce and/or separation. If we as adults are feeling overwhelmed, what must our children be experiencing?

What can be done by families and teaching personnel to help young children cope with the realities of today in a constructive manner? The answers are complex, but certainly, there needs to be a beginning. Family connection is important. Spending quality time together, explaining life as it exists today, is a necessity. Parents need to curb the amount of television and video watching done by children and make a conscious effort to be available to their child(ren).

Suggestions include being very selective in what items are purchased for children. Super-hero, monster and gun play increase a child's outlook toward violence. There are so many excellent educational items available such as blocks, Lego toys, cars and trucks, and books. Parents spending time with children, reading aloud and visiting local libraries are several excellent ways to provide a therapeutic and comforting time together. Libraries and local bookstores are filled with books specifically written to help cope with such topics as grief, death, divorce and step-parenting. Parents can benefit from the variety of books written by experts that will enable them to understand the need for nurturing and affectionate relationships to exist within the family. Many books are written with solutions to family conflicts. "The Hurried Child," © 1981 by David Elkind, a professor of Child Study and Senior Resident Scholar at Tufts University, gives insight into sound parenting practices and is a highly recommended book to purchase.

Confronting and expressing emotions in today's stressful climate is calling for collaboration among parents, schools and mental health professionals. A national policy to curb violence will have to look at gun control issues. Protecting our children in the 1990s must be given serious consideration.

Our children are our future. Parents need to consider ways to offer security and safety to ensure that future!—by Charlene Ackerman, M.Ed., Executive Director Kennedy Child Care Center

Your child's crossed eyes may cause permanent damage if not treated!

CROSSED EYES and other eye misalignments do not usually correct themselves. By the time a child is seven years old the vision damage they cause can become permanent.

Eye misalignments can be corrected as soon as a child is six months old. The earlier the correction, the more time there is for normal vision to develop.

If your child's eyes are misaligned, have them examined by Dr. Alan Chow, our children's eye specialists.

Habitat for Humanity: a cause all may agree on

What can bring even Republicans and Democrats together in a spirit of humanity?

It is Habitat for Humanity, a 17-year-old worldwide group which builds homes, improving the living conditions of hundreds. Jim Donovan, president of Lake County Habitat for Humanity, explained the group's mission to Grayslake Exchange Club members.

Former President Jimmy Carter made the organization famous. Republican ex-President Gerald Ford and Jack Kemp are on the national board.

The organization started when a person who was a millionaire at age 30, Millard Fuller, whose business success no longer challenged him, built homes in Africa. In 1976 he brought the idea to Georgia.

"He and his wife, Linda, embodied the American dream. They had two beautiful kids, a successful business. They realized it was not making them happy," Donovan said.

The businesses were sold before the Fuller's three-year missionary stint.

"They thought, charity begins at home, this is America, let's build houses here," Donovan said.

Habitat for Humanity is a not-for-profit business, not a charity. "We treat the people we work with as clients, not as people we give a handout to. One of its mottos is, 'lend a hand, not a handout,'" Donovan said.

Homes are sold at cost. "That is what makes it an affordable housing program. People think of affordable housing, they think of low-income housing and shacks. Habitat gets people into simple, decent homes. We build good homes at a low cost," Donovan said.

Abbott Laboratories contributed $38,000 to Habitat for Humanity and is sponsoring a house in North Chicago for the Robin Coleman family.

A group of churches sponsored a home in Waukegan.

"When a family works on a house, they know what is behind the walls and know what it took to build those walls and have a sense of pride, this is 'my thing, I did it'. By buying a house, they are a homeowner just like you or I," Donovan said.

Before the home is completed, families stay active with Habitat. Clara Brewton volunteers at the Waukegan office on Monday mornings. Diana Fishman works as the recycling sales program coordinator. Annette Santiago volunteers for the steering committee and Richard and Trebel Kauffman work in the recycling sales program.

The money, through the 850 U.S. Habitat affiliates, comes back to the world organization and helps to build other homes. It took two years to build the first house. By 1991, 10 homes were built. Last year, the total reached 20,000 and the 25,000th house is expected to be built this year.

While mostly to date in Waukegan, North Chicago and Zion, Habitat is looking for sites in western Lake County. A church group in Wauconda-Island Lake is interested and plans are in the works for a Round Lake Beach site.

Contributors have included Crown Mortgage and Pitman Moore-IMCERA, $5,000 each; First of America Bank and The Walgreen Co., $2,500 each; First Presbyterian Church (Libertyville), $1,500 and Libertyville Covenant Church, $1,000.

One does not need construction experience to volunteer.

"We make sure we have at least one skilled person in each group," Donovan said.

And there is probably a Republican and a Democrat pounding nails next to one another.

'Crazy for You' full of fluff, fantasy

Critic's Choice

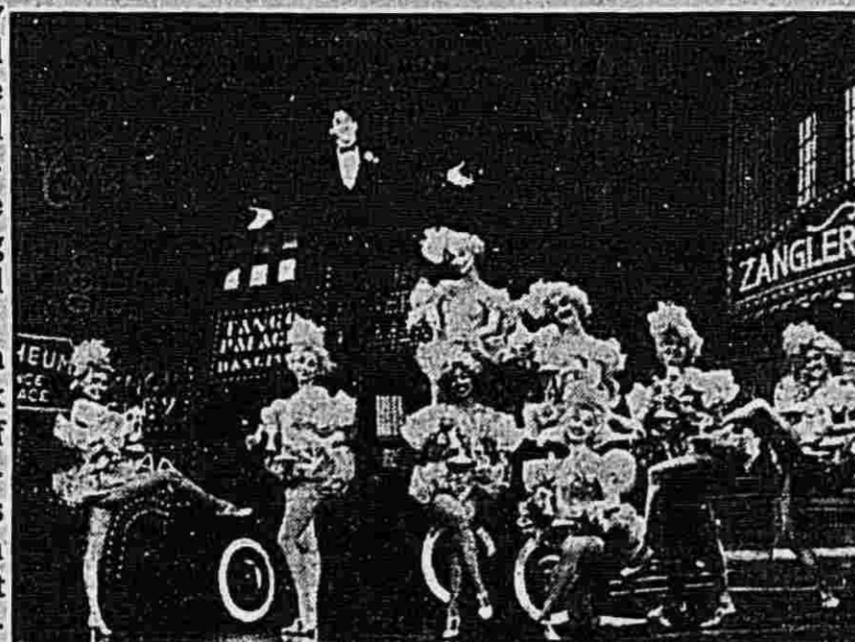

"Crazy for You" is one of those musical extravaganzas they stopped making years ago—only this one, based on the 1930s music and lyrics of George and Ira Gershwin, had its debut in late 1991. Directed by Mike Ockrent and choreographed by Susan Stroman, this traveling production has happily settled at Chicago's Auditorium Theatre, where it will play through Nov. 21.

It's a gem, filled throughout with big production numbers, bouncy chorus girls in outlandish getups, a tap-dancing lead (James Brennan) who is airborne half the time and such marvelous old tunes as "I Got Rhythm," "They Can't Take It Away From Me" and "Embraceable You." The polished orchestra is supplemented with some on-stage "musicians" banging away at pans, saws and washboards.

The story itself is of a well-heeled New York playboy who finds himself in Deadrock, Nev., a one-horse town where he falls in love with Polly (Karen Ziemba) and sets about rejuvenating a long-defunct local theater. From there, it gets complicated, with disguises, mixed identities and good, old-fashioned farce.

A mirror-image duet by Brennan and Stuart Zagnit is especially well done as is the seductive "Naughty Baby" number by Kay McClelland and Christopher Coucill.

"Crazy for You," for all its fluff and fantasy, has all the ingredients for a glorious, spirit-moving night at the theater.—by TOM WITOM

Jamaica For The Eco-Tourist

by JIM WARNEK, PRESIDENT
NORTH STAR TRAVEL, INC.

I touched a little on "Eco-Tourism" in last week's column on Belize. What is an Eco-Tourist? Quite simply it's the traveler of the 90's who wants to see the wonders of the world, but is most concerned that these natural resources are preserved for tomorrow's visitors to enjoy.

Jamaica is another Caribbean country who is beginning to share these concerns.

The 15.3 square kilometer Montego Bay Marine Park was established last year to preserve and manage the bay's marine resources. In addition, the sale of both black and white coral has been banned in Jamaica.

You may be familiar with Jamaica's famous Blue Mountain coffee. Jamaica has set aside 193,260 acres of the Blue Mountains as a national park, protecting the endemic plant species as well as the rare giant swallow-tailed butterfly which is found nowhere else in the world.

Several tourist attractions highlighting the island's natural beauty are already established.

A guided boat excursion up the Black River is one such Eco-oriented tour, where visitors will discover some of the island's most beautiful flora and fauna and may likely meet a crocodile or two along the way.

An 18th century sugar estate, The Orange River Lodge, offers visitors a chance to stay in a 150 year old Great House in the hills of St. James, above Montego Bay. Here you can hike, bike or canoe through rural Jamaica river country.

Apple Valley Farms is another property built around a former great house accommodating overnight guests. Activities include hiking, with a chance to swim under any of 29 waterfalls on your way to a mountain site where you can witness a Maroon ceremonial drumming.

Jamaica, like most Caribbean islands, is very dependant upon the tourist dollar. Recognizing that the beauty of her natural resources is what will draw the tourists of the 90's, hopefully will assure many of those dollars will be spent to preserve that beauty.

Wauconda's Jack Draft becomes tv star

Jack Draft explains chimney safety to stars of 'Coach.'

Steve Deasey has always had an affection for mascots and has combined his work as a firefighter to come up with Jack Draft, a fire safety character he created as a way to entertain people and spread the word of fire prevention.

Deasey is one of two assistant fire chiefs at Abbott Laboratory in Libertyville and has been a paid-on-call firefighter at the Wauconda Fire Department for the past 10 years, but started his career as a mascot while attending Loyola University more than 11 years ago.

He played the Ramblers mascot Bo, short for hobo, for two years, before getting involved with fire service, and decided to combine them two years ago.

Working with a company that makes mascot costumes for colleges and professional sport teams, Jack Draft was born. Deasey said he sent the company a picture of himself outfitted in full firefighter gear to give them an idea of how the character should look, as they had never created a firefighter before.

Although Jack has not made too many appearances he became a star out in Hollywood this summer, teaching the cast of the television show "Coach" fire place safety on the show's log cabin set.

Deasey got his call to go westward from David Geary, a former WFD paramedic firefighter and now Emergency Services Manager at Universal Studios, where "Coach" is taped.

Jack posed with the "Coach" cast for a picture for the studio's newsletter and started them in a discussion about chimney safety.

Deasey also has a ball playing in the annual "Battle of the Mascots" basketball game held during half-time of a Loyola Ramblers game at the Rosemont Horizon every winter, where he has teamed up with the Lotto Ball, Irving's Hot Dog and mascots from Little Caesar's and Pizza Hut pizza against the team mascots from Northern Illinois, Northwestern, Loyola and DePaul.

"You're laughing as much as you're trying to breath," he said.

Usually he remains silent and does not remove Jack's head in public, but made an exception when Shelly Fabraro asked to see who was under there, allowing Deasey to shake the cast's hands as himself.

Deasey would like to work with schools or other fire departments and their school programs.

Wauconda Fire Chief David A. Dato concurs with Deasey's assessment.

"Any increased awareness of fire safety in a community by promotional characters such as Jack Draft is always welcomed," Dato said.

Besides a curtain call at Universal next year, Deasey is seeking other opportunities.

"What the future brings me I'll be willing to do."

It's almost turkey time at the Full Moon

For over 17 years, the Full Moon, Lake Bluff's most complete family restaurant has been serving up the best food at reasonable prices. Located on Route 41 just north of Lake Bluff, the restaurant is open seven days-a-week, 24 hours a day.

Besides great food, the Full Moon gives generously to the community. This month is the restaurant's free turkey dinner. On Thanksgiving, the Full Moon serves up more than 260 turkeys, 200 pounds of mashed potatoes, and gallons of gravy to anyone who stops by.

The free turkey dinners will be served from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. on Thanksgiving day. Employees serve turkey, mashed potatoes and gravy, dressing, and cranberries to seniors, the homeless, the poor, or anyone who stops by.

Last year the restaurant served 2,600 - 2,700 free turkey dinners. They expect to feed the same amount this year. With a seating capacity of 240, diners are encouraged to eat quickly.

The Full Moon's focus is on family dining. There is plenty of parking and great service. Families are encouraged to bring their children and a children's menu is offered. In addition, a non-smoking area is available.

Stop in for breakfast, lunch or dinner to get some of the best homemade food in the area. The breakfast menu includes waffles, pancakes, bacon and eggs, biscuits and gravy, grits, and so much more. Prices range from $3 to $5.

For lunch, expect over 15 different specials everyday. These specials are home cooked and range from $4 to $6.

Full Moon boasts the finest broasted chicken for miles. The dinner menu includes many home cooked specials. And, don't miss the new seafood items on the menu.

No meal is complete without dessert. The homemade pies and cakes are a must try! And, the dining is that much more enjoyable with the completion of the interior remodeling.

Keep the Full Moon in mind when planning a party or special event. A private dining room is available. Call 689-0733 for more information.

Horoscope

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Do-it-yourself projects are favored now. There is information this week regarding a career concern. Guard against domestic friction in the latter part of the week. Meet partners halfway. The weekend favors romantic and pleasure interests.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Others may keep you waiting now. You could become upset about a business concern early in the week. Couples are in sync. You are more communicative and self-expressive than usual. The weekend accents family interests.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) You will need some care in financial dealings this week. Scrutinize business propositions carefully, and avoid wasteful spending. Talks with family members are productive. A familiar haunt suits you best this weekend.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Give close ties enough freedom this week to do their own thing. You express yourself well now. A family matter could upset you in the latter part of the week. An eye for beauty is your guide when shopping.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Interruptions are likely to limit your progress at work. A romantic flirtation may be no more than that. You will get many things done if left alone. Money talks are private and productive. This weekend, you will do something to spruce up your appearance.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) You could easily misinterpret another's intentions where romance is concerned. Keep your feet on the ground. You will have a stimulating exchange of ideas with a friend. Over the weekend, you will want to spend some time along with a loved one.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Although you are enthusiastic, it is still best not to bring things to a head where business interests are concerned. Work quietly from behind the scenes. You will have private talks related to that business matter. A friend is not much fun at all now.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) The signals others give out this week are likely to be confusing. You will have to read between the lines. Travelers may require extra time to reach their destinations. Your personality now is an asset in career dealings.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) You will make progress now with a career concern. Be wary of those who would take advantage in financial dealings. Happy news comes from a distance. A friend seems a bit depressed now. Judgment may be off when shopping this weekend.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) You may be intent now on doing your own thing, but success will come this week through cooperative efforts. Don't force issues in business. Rapport between partners is greatly enhanced now. Accent togetherness this weekend.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Despite interruptions, you will bring a project to a successful conclusion this week. There will be moments that will try your patience. Later in the week, you will be catching up on some work left over from the office last week.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Financial risk taking is not favored this week. A friend may do something to disappoint you. Couples make important decisions together about a child's best interests. Social life has business ramifications this week.

LIPSERVICE IT'S THE TALK OF THE TOWN

Lakeland
Newspapers

Please help

I need help. Was anyone else traveling on Route 83 near 173 on Oct. 19 in the early morning? Please contact the Antioch Police Department if you saw the four kids playing car tag. They jumped in front of my vehicle. The kids then accused me of trying to run them down when I got a hold of the police. Please help me out.

Mad at us

I had left, umm, a Lipservice message and, on this recording a week ago about the Mundelein junior football league. And you totally changed it.

Editorial note: Dear reader, as I have just illustrated, sometimes the spoken word does not translate as well as we think to the written word. Many times messages must be edited for clarity, brevity, and fluency. At all times, we endeavor to retain the content of the message.

Mad II

I would like to know when Lipservice decided that they can edit and cut out certain articles and sentences from an article? I am really upset about this and with our constitution that editing of articles that was this was supposed to be a free press free speech.

Editorial note: Dear reader, please read the editorial note above. In addition, the sentence that you are referring to was omitted because it included the first and last names of private individuals. As a general rule, we do not print the full names of non-public people. We neither have the correct spelling, nor the permission to print them. Finally, if you have ever read the beginning of every Lipservice column, you would notice that we reserve the right to edit or even omit any message to protect ourselves from libel and to protect others from false accusations.

Help

I need your help. Does anyone have any information about the J and P Construction Company? If so, please notify me at PO Box 284 in Round Lake, IL 60073. I would appreciate any help I can get.

For sale

I was trying to get an answer to the question of why so many houses are up for sale in Round Lake Beach. Everywhere you go, you see houses for sale. Is there something going on that I don't know about?

Needs coats

I have no complaint but I would like to find out the number of the woman who is giving out coats because the PAD's shelter in Wauconda could use coats and sweaters.

On his way

I would like to take this moment so that everyone can stop and think that Gabriel's lips are on the horn. Jesus is coming home.

Mad hunter

This is to the person on Pistakee Lake, from a duck hunter. What might happen to my truck could also happen to your house.

Good work

Go Bulldogs. I would like to congratulate the Grant High School Bulldogs for their win at the Northwest Suburban Conference Championship. The coaches are wonderful.

Burning issue

I have been reading about the volunteer fire departments that allow drinking and have bars in their basements. Allegations of drinking and then driving to fires and accidents are not new. My husband was on the Long Grove force and he was kicked off when I blew the whistle on him. This happened years ago and there was a lot of publicity. I think it is disgusting that fire volunteers are still drinking and then going to accidents. I would like to see this banned from all Lake

Only half

I have only one thing to say to all of you pro-choicers. Only half of the people who go into an abortion clinic come out alive.

Bark, bark, bark

I am wondering about the stupidity of some Round Lake residents who leave their dogs out every morning. Early in the morning. When others try to walk their dogs, the other dogs bark and bark. They should give their neighbors a break. What are they thinking? Get your act together.

Super inflation

Since 1991-1993, my tax from District 117 has gone up from $783 to $1,050 (34%). Inflation was below 10 percent during this period.

Hooray!

Congratulations to the Antioch marching band for taking first in the Burlington competition. Great work!

Residency requirement

I was just reading your paper. There was an article about the "lowlife" gang members beating up a child. The woman said that if the police officers lived in Round Lake Beach, they may have acted different. I can only agree with her. I do not think that anyone should work in the public departments of Round Lake Beach that does not live in Round Lake Beach!

In the lobby

If anyone is wondering how well President Clinton is doing to reduce the deficit, please read the November issue of Readers Digest. Maybe if we formed our own taxpayers lobby in Washington they would quit squandering our money.

Holiday changes

It is bad enough that all the legal holidays have been moved to Mondays. Why change Fox Lakes trick-or-treat hours to Saturday. What is the difference between Saturday and Sunday? Eventually, will New Year's Eve and Christmas be changed too?

Cat threats

If you live in the vicinity of Oakwood and Sunset in Round Lake Beach and care anything about your cats, you will keep them indoors where they belong. I know of at least 10 people who are ready to shoot them on sight. I hope you know a good vet.

Busing worries

I am calling because I am concerned about the safety of children on the school bus. I have three children under the age of four that will be attending Round Lake Beach schools in the future. A week ago I saw a school bus filled with children that were jumping up and down, running all over the bus, and none of them were in their seats. What kind of assurances can I get that when it comes time for my children to go to school that they will be safe?

PUBLIC NOTICE BIDS ACCEPTED

The Village of Fox Lake will accept sealed bids in the office of the Village Clerk for:

One (1) reconditioned Alfa Laval AVNX-418 Decanter Centrifuge 316 stainless steel, single lead conveyor w/hardfacing, double row cake discharge ports, moon liquid plate dams, 40 HP main drive motor, 15 HP fixed speed backdrive, 106/1 gearbox, feed tube, safety guards, vibration isolators, mounted on a 43" high table or equal.

Sealed bids will be received until 10:00 am on Monday, November 22, 1993.

Sealed bids will be opened in the Fox Lake Village Council Chambers at 10:00 am on Monday, November 22, 1993.

Questions can be answered by calling, Richard Leber, (708) 587-2151. 1193A-201-Gen November 5, 1993

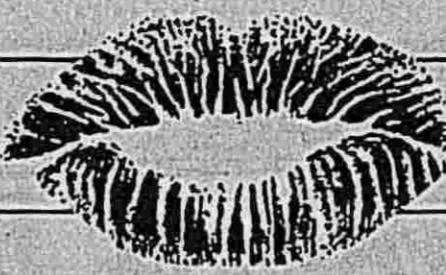

PUBLIC NOTICE GRANT TOWNSHIP

Notice is hereby given that sealed proposals will be received at the office of The Grant Township Clerk at 411 Washington Street, Ingleside, IL 60041 until 7:00 o'clock, P.M., on Nov. 16, 1993 for furnishing of the following material:

Glasgrid Self-Adhesive Pavement Reinforcement for various Township Roads. Specifications available at Township Highway Dept.

Proposals shall be made on forms furnished by the Township Highway Commissioner and shall be addressed in a sealed envelope to: Jack Kiesgen, Grant Township Highway Commissioner, 411 Washington, Ingleside, IL 60041 and shall be marked "Material Proposal-Letting of Grant Township". Further information regarding the letting may be obtained by contacting the Commissioner at 708-546-7623. The Township in accordance with the laws of the State of Illinois hereby notifies all bidders that it will affirmatively insure that the contract entered into pursuant to this advertisement will be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder without discrimination on the ground of race, color or national origin.

Picture this

This is to the person who was bugged by the photographers. I do not know why you are afraid of people taking pictures of your house. But, it should end very soon. Appraisers can only use houses that have been sold within six months. If you bought your house in May, you should stop seeing appraisers in November.

Marching success

Now that the 1993 marching band season is over at Grant High School, I would like to thank the staff members for everything they have done for us. An outstanding job was done by all the band members.

Road warrior

I live in Spring Grove, at Fox Lake Vista. They have been working on our roads since the beginning of summer. Everyone here is complaining about it. We pay good money to live here and they just don't even care anymore.

Converting the devil

Hey folks, don't forget to visit the church sponsored casino night advertised all over the area. Whoops, weren't we told by the churches six months ago that casino's were the vehicle of the devil. Our ministers are the greatest. They have converted the devil.

Maybe

The photographers taking pictures of your home are probably your insurers. If you call them and ask, they would probably admit. The pictures are required by insurance companies. If they tell you that it isn't them, well, maybe then you should be worried.

Leaping lords

I am upset with a local family, they belong to the Lake County Lords. The woman was actually doing a ritual dance in front of my home. According to my son, she was "wishing" to the Lord to "take us away." And she calls herself a true Christian. I think not! This act does not set well with me or our God. I wish they would back off and move away from Round Lake Beach.

BEST opponent

I sent in a letter to the editor discussing the BEST group and their activities, along with my opinions. You left the letter out of this week's paper and instead put in a few sugar coated notes that attacked the BEST group. Could it be that this newspaper is involved in dealing with the BEST group? Are you protecting the BEST group while trying to destroy our school system? I live in Lindenhurst.

Inspired Wildcats complete perfect football season

by STEVE PETERSON

Lakeland Newspapers

A nine and a 10-year-old from Libertyville huddled with a couple of their friends in big LHS jackets Saturday.

They braved the elements of cold, wind and snow to watch their Wildcats complete a perfect regular season with a 21-12 domination of Lake Forest.

Ten years ago, Reed Christensen may have been in their position. "I remember going to a few of the games," Christensen said of the last playoff year.

The Wildcats are back in the post-season and lead three other area teams in the playoffs this week. The unbeaten Wildcats faced Waukegan in the Class 6A first round. If they won, they faced the Stevenson-Buffalo Grove winner in the second round Nov. 6.

Reed Christensen led the Wildcats in holding the wishbone offense of the Scouts to 114 yards in offense. Christensen has been the LHS leading tackler for three years now.

The Wildcats were a motivated group going into the big home tilt. Motivation was clearly on their side.

"Normally on Fridays, I meet with the squad and tell them the proper mental approach and focus we are expecting. This week, I told them about how a running back from Baylor had both of his legs blown off in the battle for Iwo Jima. One of our players, Nathan Klontz worked as hard as he could at rehabbing a knee, and would have given his right leg to play," Coach Christensen said.

Klontz, a junior tackle, left an inspirational note on the locker room wall. Many of the players, who expressed willingness to go above and beyond the call, wore stickers with Klontz's number, No. 65.

Andrew Robertson continues to be the leader for Libertyville's first unbeaten team in 20 years. He was in on all three touchdowns, scoring from three and one-yard out and throwing an option pass for a TD to Mark Russert. Quarterback Chris Fulbright continued to impress and appear as a seasoned veteran, completing 10-of-19 passes for 164 yards.

"I had no clue. I do what I am told. The blocking up front was excellent. We controlled the line of scrimmage," Robertson said.

Senior Mark Russert continued to be the top receiver, with 99 yards in catches and the TD catch from Robertson which sealed the win.

"We opened it up today. It was clicking. With Fulbright coming in, the passing game improved week-by-week. I just wanted to be an effective player. I was more concerned the team goals: to win conference and go downstate," Russert said.

Libertyville's motivation could be seen in the first two plays. The Wildcats showed they were going to give the Scouts a rough day offensively. James Kelton nearly jarred the ball loose from the Lake Forest return man on a kickoff and then stopped Ryan Lusk for an 11-yard loss.

The Wildcats were up 6-0 at the time, as Robertson capped an opening-game drive with a three-yard TD run.

The Wildcats had another long drive capped off by a Robertson run with 2:22 left in the first.

Lusk, the Lake Forest QB, scored both

Scouts scores on runs.

"Coming into pre-season, the players kept their mind on the task each and every week. That is how they played today. With a total perspective and presence," Coach Christensen said.

The coach's back may have been bothering him at the time, since he had taken a well-deserved toss out on a painter's tarp.

"This game was a scenario of the whole season. We took the ball in twice against the wind. We had the execution defensively," Coach Christensen said. "When you shut down a team like that, it is a tremendous team effort," the mentor said.

Christensen recalled, as his players were being introduced to the fans as winners of the Wayne Whitmore trophy, the rich tradition of LHS football.

"We were the bridesmaid many times. When the playoffs first came out, only the champion got to go. In the first three or five years, we beat the team that went into the playoffs. Over the years, we went 5-4 too many times. This team set a new plateau," Coach Christensen said.

Carmel vows to keep focus in challenge of post-season

by STEVE PETERSON

Lakeland Newspapers

You can call it the Post-Making Playoff Syndrome.

Teams are so thrilled to reach the necessary 6-3 that, sometimes, mentally, the preparation is not there and an early exit awaits the club.

Carmel High's team was determined not to let that happen after a 28-21 thrilling win over Benet Academy propelled them into the dance. The Corsairs (6-3) drew Cary-Grove in the first round Wednesday in Class 4A. Carmel was drilled by Rockford Guilford in the first round last year.

What put the Corsairs into the playoffs for the second straight year may have taken place in August. "We practice that this is the fourth quarter in our conditioning. We consider ourselves a fourth-quarter team," Fitzgibbons said.

"Last year at this time we were just happy to make the playoffs. This year, being a senior, we understand what we have to do. We will be more fired up," Mike Choroski said.

The wide receiver caught five passes from Nick Yeager including one which started The Drive. Carmel had the ball at its own seven, and after a two-yard loss, Yeager and Choroski hooked up for a 21-yard pass play. Six plays later, sophomore Yeager scampered in from the four for the go-ahead score.

"They were all right. The way they played, they gave us so much room," Choroski said of the Benet secondary. Choroski was one of seven Carmel players named All-East Suburban Catholic Conference.

The offensive line powered out to allow holes in the final six plays. These included a two-yard run on third-and-one by Yeager.

Stevenson Patriots end their regular season on streak

Powered by an offensive line which has complimented his natural talents all season, Stevenson's Fajari Leary raced over the 1,200 yard mark against Mundelein.

Leary unofficially finishes with 1,2007 yards. He, like most of the regulars, were rested after the second quarter of a 35-14 win over the Mustangs Friday. Stevenson enters the playoffs 7-2 overall and finished tied for second with Lake Forest in the North Suburban Conference football race at 6-2.

"The offensive line wanted to get him (Leary) over the 1,000 yard mark. It does as well as it can for all three backs," Stevenson Coach Bill Mitz said.

The Patriots received 56 yards from Leary, 64 from Jason Cato 58 from Justin Lockhard. Leary scored on runs of 17 and 13 yards and Kevin Fredrick and Jason Blumenfeld scored in a four-touchdown blitz in the second quarter.

Mundelein led 6-0 after one on a TD by B.J. Johnson. That play by Mundelein's leading rusher was set up by a fumble recovery by Johnson. It was 35-7 Stevenson the next time Mundelein scored on a three-yard run by Wade Arnold. Arnold finished with 102 yards in the losing effort.

"We wanted to get out of the game without any injuries so we pulled the starters," Mitz said.

The Patriots were on a roll before the first-round game Wednesday against Buffalo Grove.

"This is like 1991 when we went to the second-round game after beating New Trier. We were on a five-game winning streak then. The past two years, we lost to Warren in the final game," the coach said.

Defense has been the biggest area of improvement, the coach said. It is led by lineman Kevin Birchbichler.

The Patriots have promoted six more sophomores to help in preparation for the Bison, bringing the total of sophomores on the varsity to 10.

McHenry 28, Lake Zurich 14

Sophomore Mike Stumpp scored from eight yards out in the first quarter and senior quarterback Bryan Haigh scored on an 18-yard run but those scores weren't enough to upset the playoff-bound Warriors. The Bears conclude the season at 3-6 overall, 1-6 in the Fox Valley Conference.

Stevenson 35, Mundelein 14

After allowing a first-period score by the Mustangs' B.J. Johnson, it was all Fajari Leary & Co. Leary scored two touchdowns which sent the Patriots on to victory. Playoff-bound Stevenson is 7-2 while Mundelein ends winless.

Round Lake 42

Grayslake 12

Round Lake scored five unanswered touchdowns and finished the year 4-5.

Football Standings

Robert Tellez scored twice and Bob Swanson and Bill Long one each. Jason Lake scored on a four-yard run and Chris Perham returned a kickoff all the way for 85 yards. The Rams finished winless.

Libertyville 28

Lake Forest 12

Libertyville opened up a 21-6 lead as

Andrew Robertson scored two of the three touchdowns. The Wildcats enter the playoffs unbeaten, the first time since 1975.

Zion-Benton 39

Antioch 14

Kent Ipsen ran for 82 yards and Tom Furlan caught two touchdowns from Casey O'Connell but that was not enough for Antioch. The loss finished Antioch at 3-6.

Grant 24,

Wauconda 10

The defense accounted for 10 points as Grant claimed the Northwest Suburban Conference season as unbeaten league champs. QB Shawn Powers threw a 26-yard pass to Scott Goodale.

Fenton 26, Warren 0

The Blue Devils fell victim to Fenton as the Bison earned their first playoff bid in five years. Warren ends 3-6.

Marian C. 54, Johnsburg 20

The Hurricanes finished 6-3 on the year but missed the playoffs by two playoff points. Johnsburg ends 2-7.

Carmel 28, Benet 21

The Corsairs win and earn a playoff bid behind three touchdowns by Nick Yeager. The quarterback also kicked four extra points. Jason Harper scored the other Carmel touchdown. Carmel heads into the playoffs at 6-2.

Carmel plans to be closer to full strength for playoff

by STEVE PETERSON

Lakeland Newspapers

Football is often a game of attrition, but at Carmel the Corsairs have the process reversed.

Instead of losing players to injury after nine games, key Corsairs are returning to the lineup as the second season of playoffs dawns in Mundelein.

"Ori is coming back, Ori is coming back," was the chant in the Carmel locker room after a 28-21 thrilling win over Benet. The win clinched the Class 4A berth for Carmel, opposite Cary-Grove (7-2) at home in the first round.

"We lost them early in the year. It gave them a chance to comeback with a positive attitude. That always helps. They have something to play for," Nick Yeager said.

Running back Erik Janssens was back at full strength but was called upon limited time. Center Ori was expected to return for the Cary game.

Carmel (6-3) established the run in its triple threat offense early this cold night in Mundelein. Junior Jason Harper capped off a 70-yard drive with a three-yard run.

"Establishing the running game is real important for the triple-threat offense," Yeager said.

Yeager, a junior from Gurnee, was a quarterback his sophomore year, but was moved to slot back at the start of this season.

Registration set for bowling tourney

Registration for the 65th Annual Lake County Bowling Association Tournament opens Nov. 7 and closes Jan. 9, 1994.

Over $17,000 in prize funds will be awarded. The tournament will be held at Fairhaven Lanes, 711 E. Hawley St., Mundelein and is scheduled to begin in February, 1994.

Registration forms are available at bowling alleys throughout Lake County. For additional information contact your House Representative or call Edward Zelenik, secretary/treasurer at 249-0084.

FOOT FACTS From The FOOT DOCTOR

Dr. Griff J. Winters & Assoc.
Specializing in Reconstructive Foot & Ankle Surgery

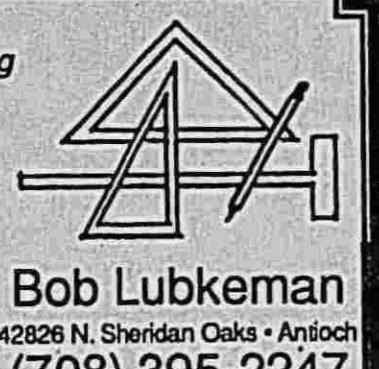

BUNIONS

Bunions are a progressive deformity, that begins with a mild bump at the base of the big toe. If left untreated the big toe deviates outward and destructive arthritic changes occur. If treated early, surgery may not be needed. If surgery is indicated it is not a disabling procedure. I utilize the Swiss Compression technique which prevents cast wear and the patient may walk that same day. Other advantages to this procedure are that surgery is performed on an outpatient basis and little or no time is missed from work.

If you have the above symptoms or any other foot discomfort, you may contact Dr. Winters for a NO COST CONSULTATION to see if there may be an answer to your foot pain.

I'LL BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW...
Brought To You By

MICHAEL FOHRMAN OF FOHRMAN DODGE

Oddly enough, the record for the biggest crowd ever to attend a football game was NOT set at a college or pro football game as you'd expect, but at a high school game...The all-time football attendance record was at Soldier Field, Chicago, Nov. 27, 1937, when 125,000 people came to see a high school playoff game.

Incredibly, there was once a National Football League game when one team got behind 21-0 BEFORE THEY EVEN HAD THEIR FIRST PLAY FROM SCRIMMAGE!...It happened in 1975...San Diego kicked off to Cincinnati, and Cincinnati marched down the field for a touchdown...San Diego then fumbled the next 2 kickoffs and both were turned into touchdowns by Cincinnati...Thus, the score was 21-0 before San Diego ran their first scrimmage play...They were virtually out of the game before they could get started...Final score was 47-17.

Here's an unbelievable football record that may never be broken...Placekicker Tommy Davis kicked extra points for the San Francisco 49ers for 7 CONSECUTIVE YEARS WITHOUT EVER MISSING ONE... Davis booted 234 extra points in a row from 1959 through 1965--and never missed during that time...Nobody has topped that record, before or since.

Kerpec's big block inspires 'Cats to shutout

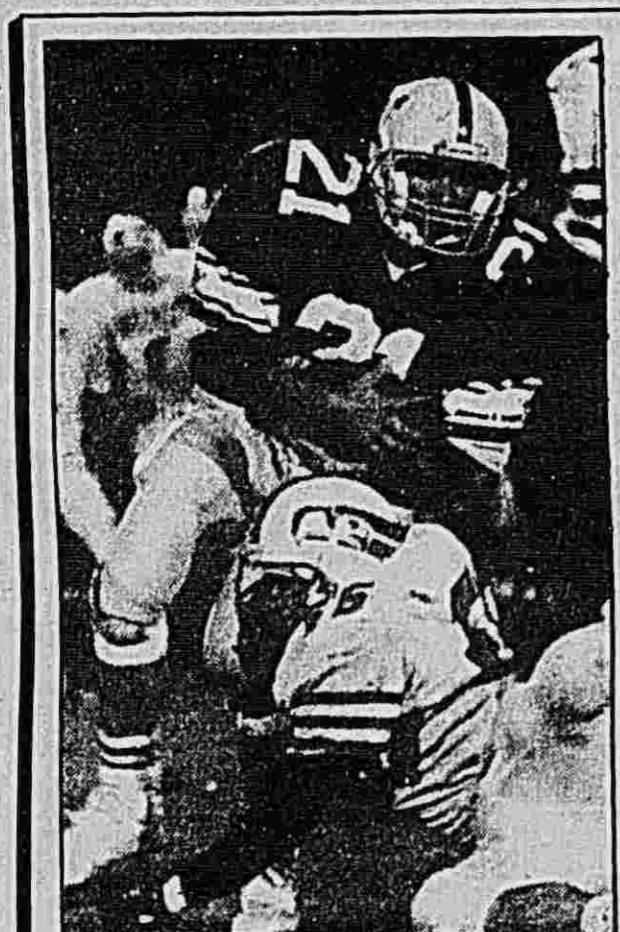

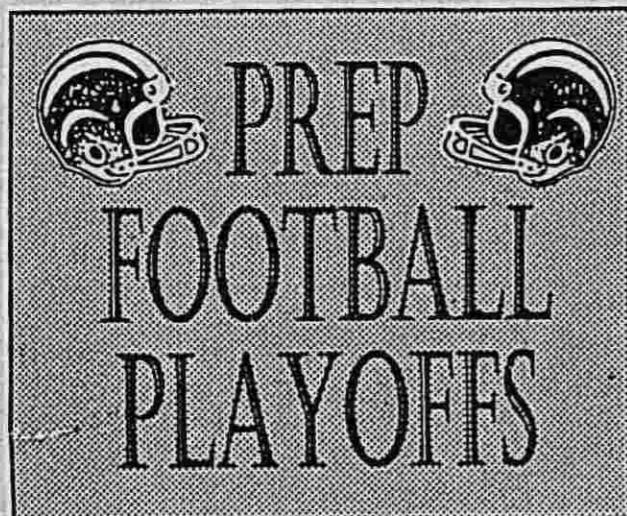

by STEVE PETERSON

Lakeland Newspapers

The Libertyville defensive line noticed a weak spot early on in the Waukegan punting game.

"They were in a five-man line and we had two on the left side. I made the move on the back," Brian Kerpec said.

Kerpec, instead of falling on the football, reached a lineman's dream of a touchdown 24 yards later. The play sparked the Wildcats to a 22-0 shutout in the first round of the Class 6A playoffs.

Libertyville, 10-0, earns another chance against Stevenson Nov. 6. The Wildcats downed Stevenson 7-6 in overtime back in September.

Kerpec, a 6-1, 215 pounder, may not outrun many teammates in the 40-yard dash, but there was no one between himself and the Waukegan goal line.

The ball hit Kerpec in both hands. "I saw the ball loose. I was about to fall down on it. I barely made it in. I saw the end zone," Kerpec said.

"We've covered things like that, but the natural instinct is to cover the ball. It happens so fast," Christensen said.

The offense then righted itself after the third-quarter score.

Quarterback Chris Fulbright hit Mark Russert on a crossing pattern for a 28-yard touchdown and Andrew Robertson used cutback moves and fakes for a 50-yard sprint and a TD.

But what about that 0-0 half-time score?

"We had two or three times we should have scored. It was totally disappointed with 0-0. At halftime we said to ourselves, 'if we win, we go on; if we lose, we are done,'" Kerpec said.

"The team did not put pressure on itself. A lot of times you can feel the tension on the sidelines if you do not score when you have the opportunities. But we maintained our poise," LHS Coach Dale Christensen said.

"Even when you have the experience in post-season play, it is a whole different season. He (Fulbright) may have been a little bit tight," Christensen said.

The unbeaten Wildcats turned the ball over on an intercepted pass the first quarter but drove to the Waukegan one. But Shannon King came up with the big play defensively, stopping Robertson on fourth down.

Waukegan moved the ball deep into Libertyville territory in the final seconds of the first half. But Jim Kelton came up with the big play, stopping the Waukegan runner on fourth and 10.

"Very few guys have that kind of ability. He virtually came to a stop. He has such a field of vision and he has such a field of vision. Not only open field, but a runner, period," Christensen said of Robertson's score.

Robertson's number, No. 20 or 42 due to a torn jersey problem, was called on 17 times. He had runs of 27 and 21 yards in addition to the jaunt through the Waukegan secondary and topped the 100-yard mark.

The defense sealed the win when Reed Christensen and Todd Gierthy teamed up for a tipped interception. The Cats' Ben Austin recovered a Waukegan fumble after a long pass play with less than two minutes to go.

The Wildcats were not perfect in the 10th win.

"Early in the year, we were excellent about turnovers. But we need to be conscience of that," Christensen said.

Patriots victorious in first playoff contest

The Stevenson Patriots came out strong and then hung on to defeat Buffalo Grove, 20-14 in the first round of playoff action in Class 6A, Wednesday.

It was a hard fought game with few penalties as the Patriot defense held Buffalo Grove scoreless in the first half.

But, the Pat defense began to break down as fatigue set in allowing Buffalo Grove to score all of its 14 points in the second half.

The Pats rallied back to seal Buffalo Grove's fate with a quarterback sack and a loss of 10 yards with less than a minute remaining in the game. Stevenson then took possession at their own 25 yard line and let the clock run out to score the victory.

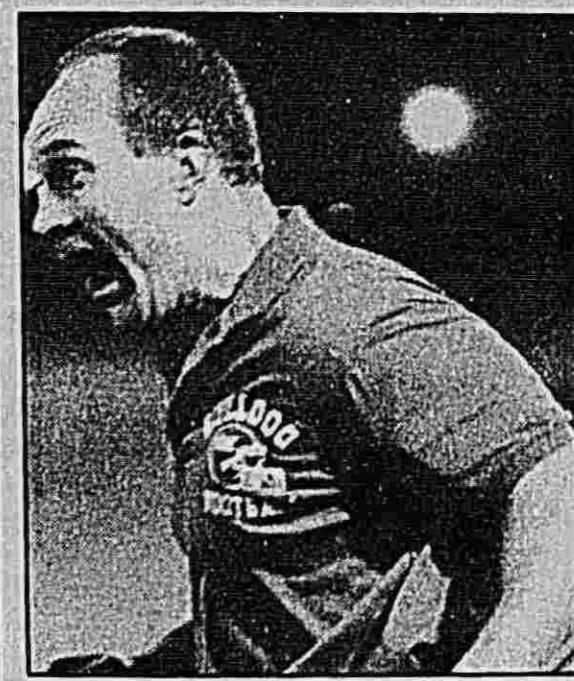

Senior Pats standout running back Faraji Leary scored two of Stevenson's touchdowns and rushed for 151 yards. Jason Cato contributed the Pats third touchdown and rushed for 92 yards.

Stevenson will meet the Libertyville Wildcats in the next round of playoff action, Saturday.

The game will pit the two North Suburban Conference rivals in a rematch of their regular season contest which was arguably the most exciting in the conference this season. The Wildcats were victorious in overtime at their last meeting, 7-6. A scoreless game sent the match into overtime with both teams being given the opportunity to score from the ten-yard line.

The second round of playoff action will likely showcase Leary against the Wildcats Andrew Robertson.

Assistant coaches are filling key roles on playoff teams

by STEVE PETERSON

Lakeland Newspapers

They toil mostly anonymously. Sometimes they will not even be at the varsity football contest, for their assignment is to sit up in the top row of bleachers, taking notes while others root loudly.

They are assistant football coaches.

Generally standouts in high school, they went on to small colleges or even, in the case of a few, "name" schools. They bring a whistle with them and wear headsets to games.

Whether it be just two as in Grant or eight at Libertyville and Stevenson, they played major behind-the-scenes roles in getting their clubs to this week's playoffs. And their bosses will be the first to tell you that.

"My job is to maintain the overall picture," Libertyville Coach Dale Christensen said. "Assistants play a much larger part. They have a great deal of responsibility when it comes to the practice schedule."

— Libertyville Coach Dale Christensen

both would set up a second-round clash Nov. 6.

"The assistant coaches, from the freshmen level on up, work very hard. We have been going at it since 8 a.m.," Stevenson Head Coach Bill Mitz said Sunday night.

The Patriots have been together as a staff for 12 years and the mentor points to that as a key reason for Stevenson's success. Stevenson has been in the playoff picture five years in a row.

"We are all pretty close. There has not been a lot of change over the years and we understand each other," Mitz said.

Bob Smith is the defensive coordinator; Craig Sincora coaches the quarterbacks; Tom Bujnowski the defensive line; Phil Raffaelli the wide receivers; Charlie Bilodeau the defensive backs; Tom Baumann the running backs and Paul Swan the special teams.

At Libertyville, Brad Swanson is a "super coach who may wind up at the college level," Christensen said.

It was Swanson who guided LHS quarterback Chris Fulbright in honing his skills after the sophomore took over the starting role against Fenton.

"John Ahlgren is an inspiration for the defense line," Christensen said. Ahlgren, a Carmel product, graduated from Notre Dame in 1987.

Kent Jennrich has been at Libertyville since 1972, Christensen's second season as head coach. The 1968 Antioch High grad played line at Monmouth College.

Another long-time LHS staffer is Randy Kuceyeski. He handles linebackers and ends and calls the defensive signals. He and his identical twin, Ron, received scholarships to Northwestern. He has been at LHS since 1978.

Beau Schaffer and Tony Monken have roles as assistant varsity as well as sophomore duties.

Schaffer was a 1980 graduate of LHS, where he earned all-NSC honors as a flanker. He went on to become a starter at Lawrence University in Appleton, Wis.

Monken attended Wheaton North during its glory days of the 1979 state title year. His varsity team won 23 games, two conference titles as Monken was a key split end.

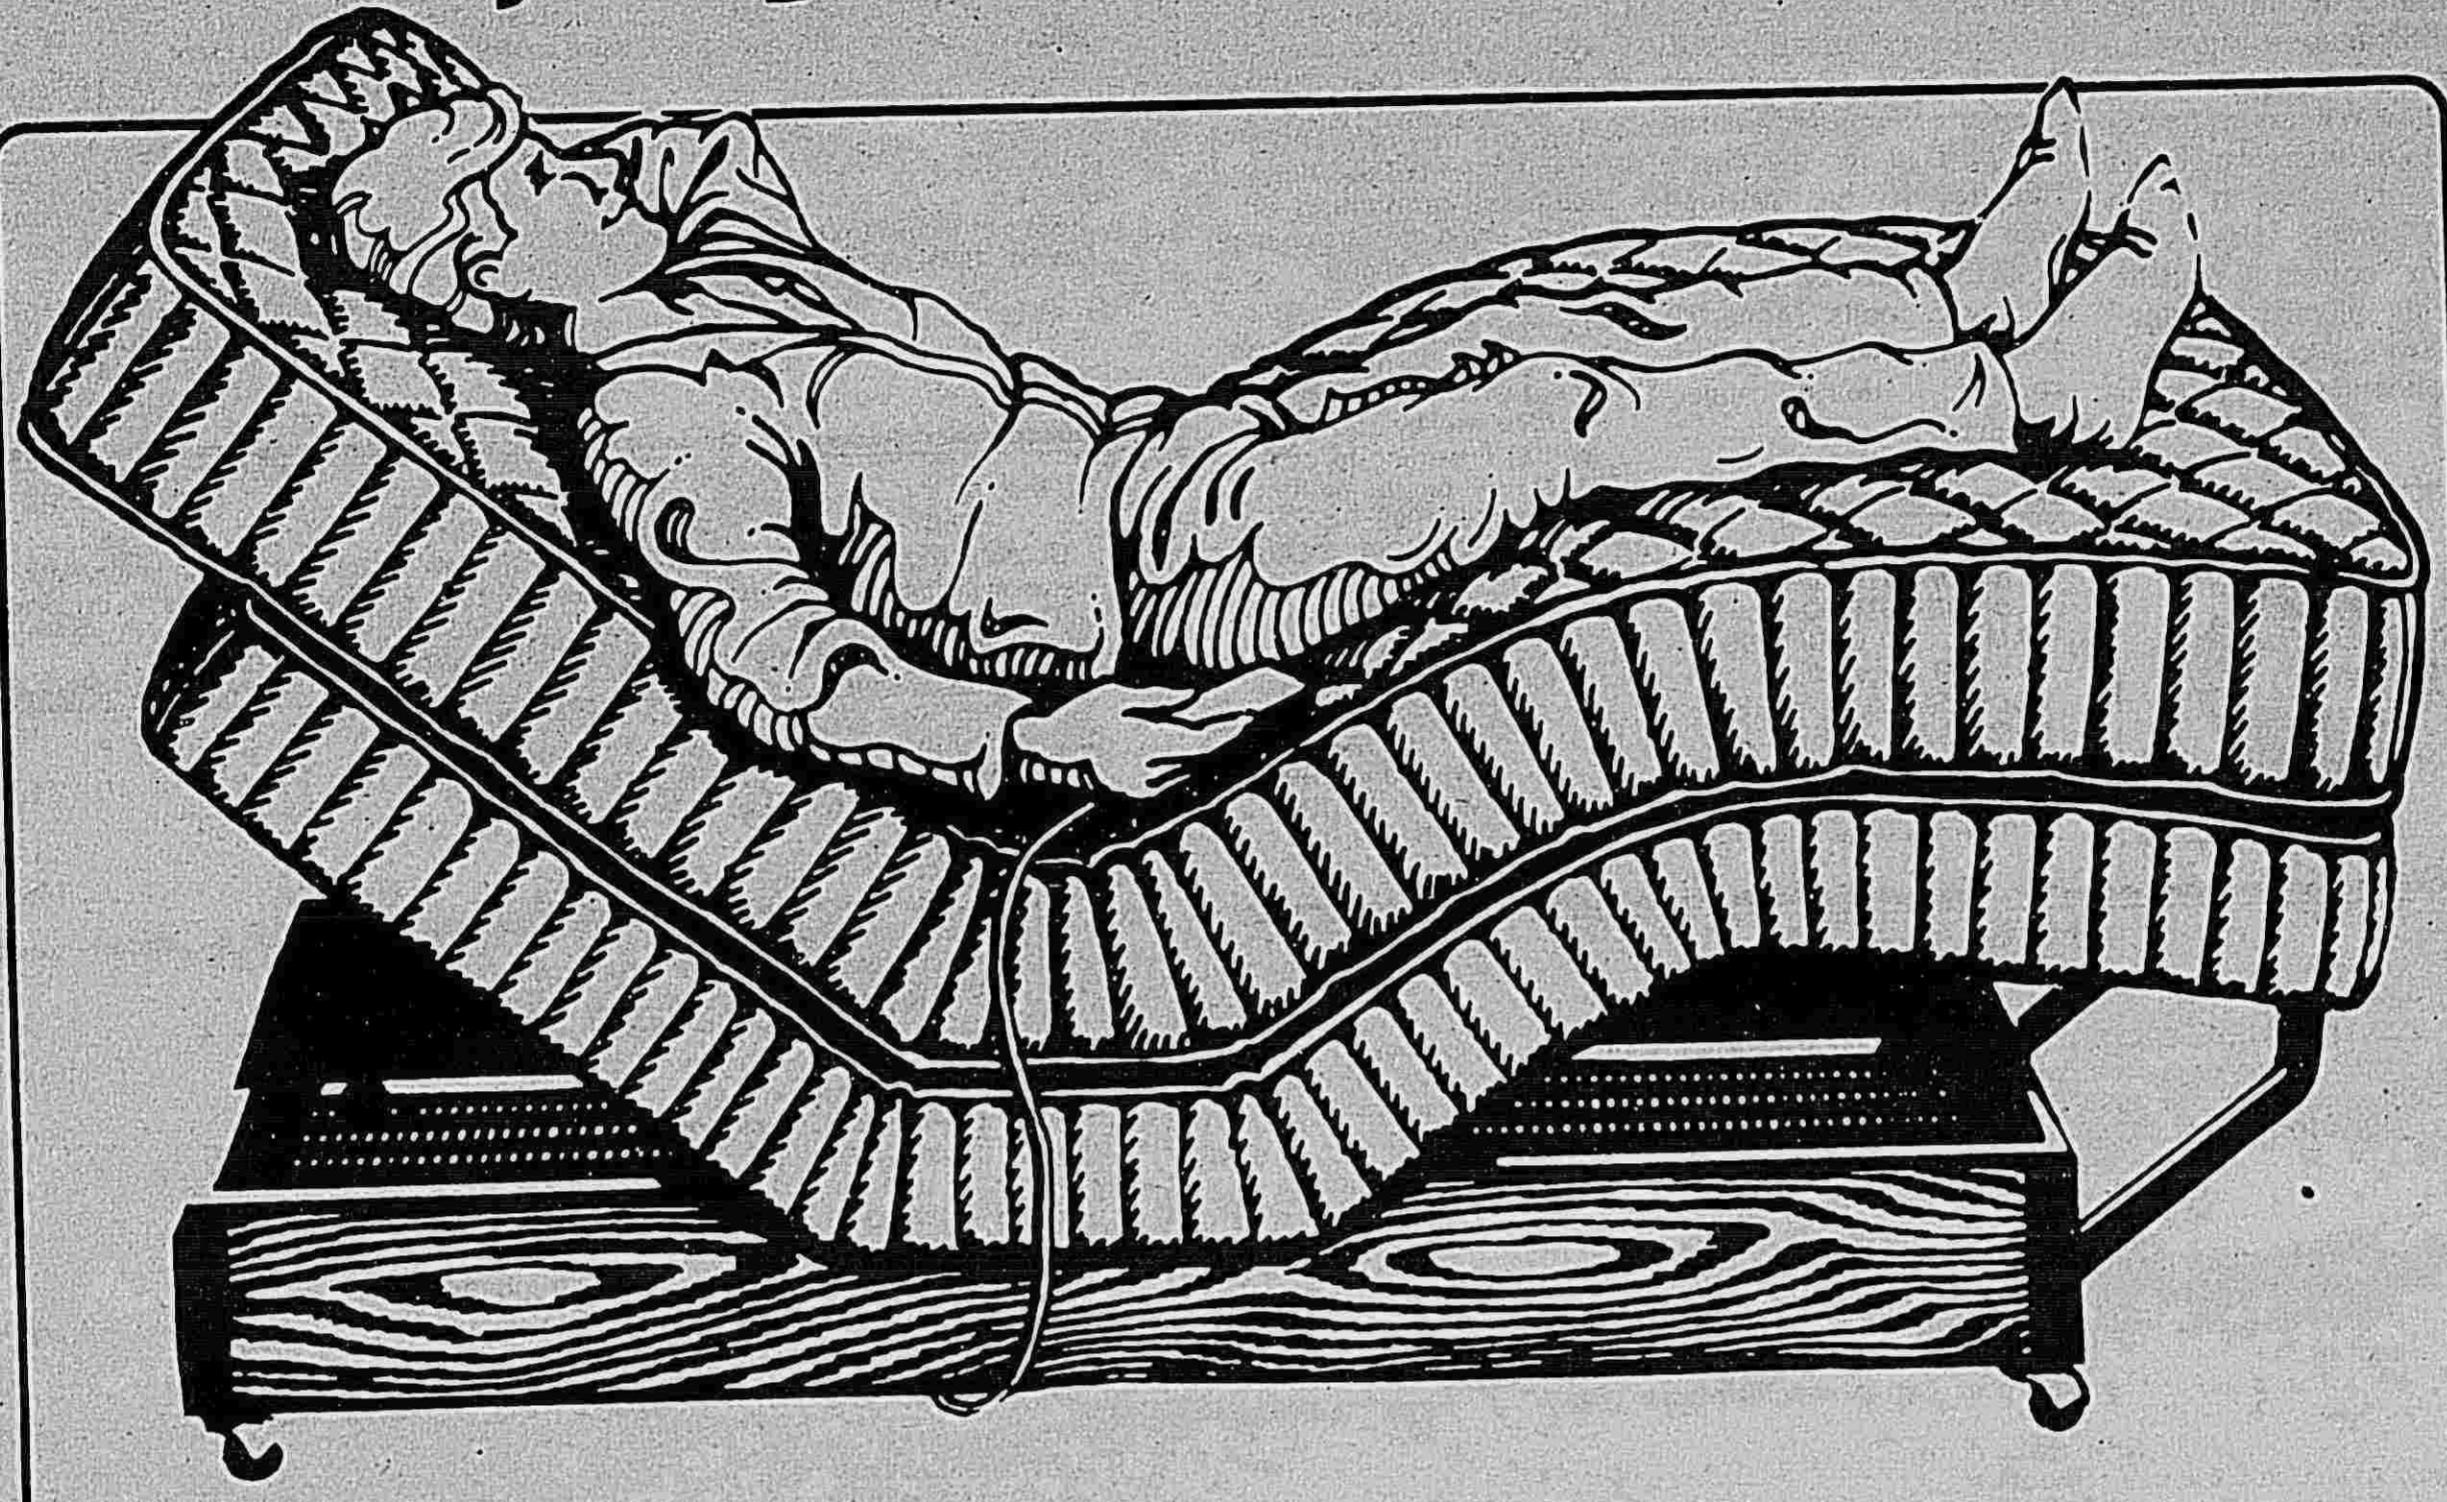

Grant (5-4) has one of the smallest staffs, as Bob Klotz directs the defense and Fred Loffredo the offense. The freshmen and sophomore coaches gave their views on stopping 7-2 Crystal Lake South.

"We had a lot of input. We looked at a lot of game film on Saturday and Sunday had a normal practice like it was Monday. Tuesday will be Wednesday and Wednesday will be like Friday," Grant coach Mark Barczak said.

Carmel (6-3) Coach Mike Fitzgibbons had equally high praise for his staff, including Ben Berg who coaches the offensive line, Andy Bitto, Tom Kelly and Erick Skoog.

"I depend entirely on the assistants. I rarely overrule them. They are a great staff. You can't get anywhere in football without a great staff and talented players," Fitzgibbons said.

AARP has fire drill

Members of Antioch Chapter 387, AARP, are now the best informed seniors in Antioch after learning about the deadly hazards of fire. At the meeting on Oct. 26, Captain Richard Frankson and Chris Leinhardt of the Antioch Fire Department, showed a video tape featuring Jonathan Winters as he explained the many dangers of a fire and what to do to avoid them. His well known comedy routine made the picture entertaining as well as constructive.

Following this presentation, Halloween was observed with members in costume marching before a panel of judges who awarded prizes to: Dolly Spiering, Stella Weeks, Phyllis Mengler and Dorothy Langhof. Cards and Bingo followed.

The next meeting will be on Nov. 9 when the chapter will observe Canned Goods Day for the needy families in the Antioch area. All members are asked to bring cans of food or packaged goods. Monetary donations will also be accepted in lieu of canned products.

Recovery Center offers parent support group

Lutheran General Recovery Center at Mundelein offers two new programs "First Look" and "Just for Parents" both of which address the impact alcohol and other drugs have on individuals and their families.

"First Look" is an early intervention program for adult men and women who may wonder if their own alcohol or other chemical use has become a serious problem. The program offers educational information, both a lifestyle and drug/alcohol assessment and random drug screening. The program is held on three consecutive Monday evenings from 6:30 to 8 p.m. The total cost of the program is $125.

The new "Just for Parents" program offers support to parents with kids who are struggling with alcohol and other drugs but who may not yet have decided they want to get well. A certified addiction counselor will share skills necessary to live with an abusing teen and two parent volunteers will share their personal experiences and how they learned to cope. The cost for this open-ended group is $20 per session. The group meets Wednesdays evenings from 6 to 8 p.m.

"We have had repeated requests for programs like this," says Jean Britt, executive director, Lutheran General Recovery Center at Mundelein. "If a parent has a teenager who is refusing to face his/her drug problem, parents often say 'What about us? We're hurting and we need help in dealing with our troubled child.' We also get calls from people who say 'You know, I never thought I had a problem with alcohol, but now I'm not so sure. How can I tell?' These two programs meet those needs."

For more information or to register for either of these programs, call Lutheran General Recovery Center at Mundelein, 634-2020.

Martial Arts Improves A Lot More Than Just Kicks

Tae Kwon Do has improved both Randy's and Tiffany's self confidence and feeling of self worth dramatically. They have proven to themselves that they can achieve goals that they thought unreachable. In particular the "Never give up" attitude has crossed over into their school work.

Where he used to shrink from anything new and different he now accepts the challenge readily, and is willing to keep trying until he conquers whatever it is the teacher presents to him.

The biggest factor has been the "family" atmosphere that exists in class. Everyone helps. Everyone is friends. Therefore, no one is left out.

Mrs. Valerie Stevens

You'll help your child gain self-confidence, improve concentration and develop self-discipline.

To Achieve these and other goals, you need a unique and structured program like the one we offer at Sidekicks. Our instructors are all knowledgeable and certified. Their experience and our unique programs bring out the best in children of all ages from 5 and up.
